Don't Drink and Drive — You'll Stay Alive

CAPT. JELICH checks with Patrolman Herbert Lesley before the officer begins his daily stint on the county highways. The number of collisions and injuries are predictably rising.

DOES THIS HAPPEN to your windows during the winter months? Carry a scraper, is Patrolman Lesley's advice. CHP officers know that no matter how well things go this holiday season, they will have to look at some pretty tragic and bloody scenes. It's all part of being a California Highway Patrol officer. Bill Koch Named Man of the Year!

By JEAN JERNIGAN

Disbelief, surprise, then happiness were emotions that followed in quick succession when William (Bill) Koch was told that he was the unanimous choice of the 1961 Selection Committee for Man of the Year.

"People here are so wonderful," Koch exclaimed. "One just can't describe it until one has lived in other parts of the world and seen the difference.

"I am very, very happy to be a citizen of the United States. In Germany no one would have a chance for anything like this to happen," Koch continued.

BILL HAS lived in Orinda for nearly 20 years, prior to that he operated a bakery in Albany after coming from Germany in 1923. Bill and his wife, Emily, have been married 33 years, have two sons, a daughter and three (maybe four by now) grandchildren.

A warm, friendly person, never too busy to lend a helping hand or give encouragement to some young person, Bill has been active in many things, but is perhaps most familiar to the community in his position as fire marshal.

After selling the bakery in Albany in 1943, Bill served two years in the United States Coast Guard. He joined the Orinda Fire Department as a volunteer, becoming a regular fireman in 1946.

WHEN BLACK'S Market opened in 1947, he left to operate the bakery there, but after six months returned to the fire department.

Prevention of fire became his vital interest in 1948 and he instituted the giving of permits for supervised burning and other rules regulating controlled burning.

Orinda's fire commission was established in 1950. The commission then established the fire prevention bureau, naming Koch as chief of the bureau.

He has represented the fire district at different meetings in addition to conducting his job, the volume of work becoming so great that a few years ago he was provided with an assistant.

"Orinda has one of the best fire records in the county in connection with losses and we feel this is because of our fine fire prevention bureau," commented Clarence Betz, commission secretary.

FIRE CHIEF Al Winsor said, "In my opinion Orinda has one of the finest fire prevention programs in Contra Costa County due to the efforts of Bill Koch.

"Bill is also known state-wide for his activities in fire prevention, such as helping to bring about new legislation by the state, new codes by boards of

Committee Statement Tells Choice Unanimous

With the announcement of the selection of Bill Koch as their unanimous choice for the Man of the Year award, the 1961 Man of the Year committee made the following statement:

"Since Orinda is noted throughout central Contra Costa County as a community of strong, effective civic leaders, the 1961 "Man of the Year" committee felt the weight of doing a responsible job of selecting one above so many highly qualified nominees.

"WE WOULD like to thank everyone who wrote or telephoned their suggestions. All the candidates entered are valuable persons to their home town, Orinda.

"After searching deliberations, the committee has unnanimously selected William (Bill) Koch as the man we would like to honor this year in recognition for his years of service to the men, women, children and homes of Orinda.

"Bill is known to three generations of Orindans for his fire prevention work which has been manifest in many ways. Besides this primary contribution, he has never been too busy to counsel the young, to kill a rattlesnake, to rescue a pet, or to plant a pine tree on an eroding hill.

"WHATEVER the problem presented, Bill is always ready to help solve it. We salute Bill Koch, Orinda's 1961 Man of the Year."

Serving on the 1961 selection committee were Mrs. J. Gordon Ainsworth, chairman; Kenneth Courtright and Harry Fledderman.

Have You Seen Marjorie Parsons

Fears for the safety of Marjorie Lynn Parsons, missing from her Orinda home since December 21, mounted this week as a four-county search and wide publicity continues to reveal no trace of the attractive 14-year-old girl.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon L. Parsons, Jr., of 50 Meadow Road, Marjorie is the object of a search by police and sheriff's deputies of Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

Marjorie left home last Thursday, driving the family's second car, an old black Buick. The vehicle was found the next day, disabled, down a steep embankment of Canada Road in San Mateo County.

MISSING from the car was family camping equipment and extra clothes the youngster had taken with her, according to the sheriff's report. The girl was last seen at a drive-in in Redwood City, alone and wearing a beige car coat, white blouse and flat shoes with a black skirt, deputies said.

Apparently the girl drove away from her home while her parents were out. Mrs. Parsons said that Marjorie had visited her grandfather in the mid-west two summers ago and at that time he had taught her to drive.

"We did not permit her to drive here," her mother continued, "but she did have the knowledge and skill to drive the car." She added the car had been towed back to the Orinda home and appeared hardly damaged except for a flat tire and brakes that had gone.

Mrs. Parsons said that her daughter appears older than her 14 years. She is five feet, four inches, weighs 120 and has light blonde hair. Her parents believe she had no more than $5 with her.

A FRESHMAN at Miramonte High School, Marjorie was like so many other young teens, according to her parents, boys and girls, who wish they were older, could stay out later and have more freedom.

"We worked with Marjorie," her mother said. "She never had too much freedom, nor did she stay out too late at night."

A thickly wooded area surrounds the site where the car was found and Mrs. Parsons fears her daughter may have come to harm from some passerby who may have stopped after seeing the disabled car.

MISSING from her Orinda home since last Thursday, 14-year-old Marjorie Parsons is the object of a four-county search by police and sheriff's deputies. Fears for her safety grow as mystery continues to shroud her disappearance. The attractive light blonde youngster was a freshman at Miramonte High School.

Aches, Pains, Sniffles Bugging Area Residents

Sitting in solitary misery beside a large box of tissue? Cheer up, you are not alone with your aches, pains, sniffles and/or sore throat and ear ache.

However, maybe you aren't as sick as you think you are. The county health department reports that while there is a seasonal increase in respiratory ailments, samples examined show that influenza B is not a majority illness at this time.

Doctors throughout the mid-county report there's been a definite increase in complaints the last two weeks, but not all can be blamed on flu.

Colds, sore throats, ear aches, general malaise account for the majority of the calls. A Danville doctor's office reported they were swamped with calls.

A brighter picture was described in Walnut Creek, where a nurse described the situation as "wild" before Christmas, but back to the season's normal increase this week. Pleasant Hill, Lafayette and Orinda reported a definite increase of calls, but nothing reaching major proportions.

Short of hibernating in a sterile room, the best precautions are plenty of rest, sensible hours and proper food. If you do join the club, Misieries Anonymous, stay away from other people, consult your doctor and hope for the best!

CHP Report Has 17 Hurt: One Is Critical

A rash of accidents caused one critical injury in Danville this week and sent at least a dozen mid-Danville this week and sent 16 mid-county people to hospitals or their doctor with minor injuries.

However, one local couple, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vossler, was killed in a hit-and-run accident in San Jose. Two other deaths occurred in Contra Costa County.

HEAVY FOG added to the problems of the California State Highway Patrol and city police, according to the accident reports.

Albert Lesmoyne, 54, of 201 Prospect Avenue, Danville, is still in critical condition at Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek as a result of an accident last Friday on Highway 21 south of Danville.

The injured man told officers he was traveling north after dark when the apparently crazy action of lights reflected in his rear view mirror distracted him. His car went off the road and rolled over seven or eight times before coming to a halt.

ONE PEDESTRIAN injury was reported. He was Norville E. Terry, 36, of 158 Mesa Drive, Danville.

Terry was crossing Prospect Avenue in Danville when he was struck by a car driven by Dr. Bernard D. McKean, who says he saw the pedestrian but was unable to stop. The Danville doctor was cited for violating a pedestrian right-of-way.

CHRISTMAS EVE four teenagers were taken to Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek following an accident on Moraga Road near Eastview Drive in Lafayette.

According to officers' report, the driver of the car, Jack Warren DuBoise, 18, of 33 Valla Court in Walnut Creek, had been drinking.

Both he and his passengers, Valerie Leland, 17, of 944 Dewing Avenue in Lafayette and her sister, Marjorie, 13, and Ilona Marshall, 15, of San Rafael were injured and taken to Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek for treatment.

The highway patrol report says DuBoise's car went out of control and rolled over. A complaint was filed against him for driving at excessive speed.

EARLIER, on December 21, a wrong-way accident sent three people to their doctors for treatment of injuries. Mrs. Florence Hill West, 73, of 38 Mira Loma, Orinda, went down Brook Street near the post office in Orinda, crossed Camino Pablo with the green light and went straight ahead, according to the patrol report.

Mrs. West told officers she spotted a car coming out of the ramp too late to stop and they collided.

Both Mrs. West and the driver of the other car, Donald Thomas DeBost of 2980 Consuelo Road in Concord were injured. DeBost's passenger, H. D. Stevenson, also of Concord also was treated for minor injuries.

TWO OTHER accidents were reported over the Christmas weekend. Excessive speed caused one, alcohol was involved in the other.

Max Porter Arnold, Jr., 18, of 300 Hartford Road, Danville, was hurt Saturday when his car piled into a tree on Lilac Drive in Walnut Creek. A second speeding car driven by Jan DeKalb Key, 22, of 132 Ardith Drive, Orinda, struck Arnold's car from behind. Both drivers were taken to Kaiser Hospital. Their passengers, Max Porter Arnold of Danville and Sydney Williams of Alamo also were treated at Kaiser.

OFFICERS REPORTED that Ray Burk, Jr., of 381 Monticello Road in Walnut Creek was southbound on San Miguel Drive when his car went out of control and struck a fence. He told officers he had had two or three drinks and didn't know what happened. He was treated for injuries at Kaiser Hospital.

Early Wednesday morning a car driven by Eulis Bledsoe, 21, of San Francisco, failed to negotiate a curve on Bear Creek Road in Orinda, causing injuries to the driver and his two passengers, Judith Hawkins of Richmond and Davis Bedell, Jr., of Utah. All were taken to Kaiser Hospital for treatment.

IN ANOTHER accident Wednesday night Ann Barbara Bean, 62, of 3755 Sunvale Road in Lafayette was taken to Contra Costa County Hospital with minor injuries by officers after her automobile struck a telephone pole on Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

And, also on Wednesday Garry Johnson, 21, swung wide in his car on Jeffrey Lane west of Homestead Avenue in Walnut Creek and struck a tree. He was taken to Kaiser Hospital with minor injuries.

Thursday at 1:40 a.m. at the intersection of Contra Costa Highway and Willow Pass Road, an automobile driven by Clark C. Brown, 23, of 527 Masefield Drive in Pleasant Hill was struck as the driver was making a left turn by a car driven by Albert J. Forman, 41, of 2400 Acacia Drive, Concord.

Brown was treated at Kaiser Hospital, Forman by his own physician.

Christmas Leftovers . . .

DID YOU HAVE the same trouble? A few days before Christmas, Nancy Foote turned to admonish her boys for peeking at the presents under the tree. "We're NOT peeking, Mom . . . We're just rattling!" came back the sensible reply.

Here at home, we scolded ours for their impatient peeking & poking & got—"We're just looking through the wrappings."

NOW it's all over, ALMOST, & if you're like everybody else, now that you've had a chance to relax or completely collapse, you feel like you've been hit on the head w/a hammer . . .

CHRISTMAS IN ORINDA: The hills sparkling under a fairyland of colored lights . . . Over & up on Bel Air Drive, a vantage viewing spot to look down & around on the gay outlined rooftops . . . & the colored fountains at the Ted Harrers adding their glamour to the season.

Honeyhill Road homes bright through the fog & the John Stahle's red-ribboned mailbox to match the pretty decor bidding Miramonte Orch. & Band members to a party hostessed by daughters Donna & Laurie.

At the Santa Maria Women's Club dinner dance at Orinda Country Club, Ramona Smith doing an expert TWIST (w/a look of serious concentration on her face) . . . Chris Lang sheathed in white (simplicity & elegance) & wearing brilliant earrings in her HAIR . . .

A BIG BAUBLE of a white-gold moon coming up over the horizon in time to hang on the tree . . . One half-baked housewife telling friends in Sprouse-Rietz that she was so dizzy & busy she was BAKING her Xmas cards & WRITING her COOKIES. That's just about how it went here! We're still writing messages to the East. On cookies? No!

PURPLE & orange plush poodles going THAT fast from the counters at Orinda Pharm . . . Angelic cherubs painted across the big windows at the new Chuck's restaurant at the Crossroads & at Orinda Pet Shop, something for Fido's stocking — CARE packages for canines. Phair's fair cherubs shivering in their cold stone statues.

Jingle Bell Rock . . .

Bev Hamilton, the organized kind of gal you think Those Things Never Happen To, losing her car keys in Lucky's (just like the rest of us) & having to hitch a ride home w/a 10-lb. bag of potatoes in tow.

DON'T mention tardy Christmas cards to Jeannette Wright! She ordered hers from NY mos. ago & they were delivered just a few days before You Know When.

SF SIGHTEM: Ed Turk loaded down w/ packages, gazing upward to the topmost top of the gorgeous tall City of Paris tree . . . In Podesta & Baldocchi, the perfect present for busy couples: A "KISS ME QUICK" mistletoe ball.

The traffic jam at Pine Grove School when the schoolkids returned home via bus from seeing El Cid at the Alexandria Theater . . . Having on fellow remark to his Dad—— "Gee, they had rocking seats but they wouldn't let any of us rock!" Can't you just see 200 kids all rocking simultaneously? A real Jingle Bell Rock!

SIGN ON Jackson's Party Service: "No Elves, But Lots of Spirits."

DUCK SOUP: Walter Boysen comparing hunting season notes in the Orinda Village Hdwe. on a Sunday morn . . . Frank Draeger looking So Pleased & Smug w/ himself & no wonder! There he was crossing the street to Phair's, w/a prize string of ducks in hand.

Spkg. of Ducks, the ones at Lake Cascade have lost their Big Protector. Some misguided boy, out of season & out of order, shot the Canadian Honker Goose that has been there so long, a favorite pet of many families in that area & protector of the ducks & their young.

JOLLY JIM DAVISON sporting a holly felt tie & telling that it reminded him of Way Back When he had the part of Scrooge in the school play . . . Off he went mumbling to himself the long-memorized lines about Humbug, Bah & "Holly through the heart!"

Ann Stiltner & Sidney Cutting riding their horses through the Village . . . Lila Axelson browsing the Drug Store counters . . . Lee Texdahl buried under a big bag of fancy gift wraps . . . Realtor Doug Knight across the street & looking THAT distinguished . . . Vangie Dickinson & her two posting a mammoth pile of cards at the P.O. . . . ditto Billie Poole w/her Texan "Merry Christmas, Y'all" drawl.

DARRELL Courtwright sorting cards in the last-minute mail rush . . . Fran Sutliffe w/word that son Dick was down in Mexico w/Tom Gaffaney & Rick Bedayn & due home by Christmas. Grid Star Tom Gaffaney's picture, taken years ago by photog Wayne Miller for his "World Is Young" book, has landed on a late cover of a French magazine.

The Gay Apparel . . .

If you saw spots before your eyes, it was just Jackie Tippets shopping in a leopard-spotted raincoat w/her dghtr. Marcia . . . The Norm Millers shopping for their Christmas shindig . . . Connie & Jim Benney party-bound & just in from an early Dec. fun trip to Boston & an Auld Lang Syning w/old college friends.

LUCIUS, MOVE OVER: Eleven-year old Johnny Heller ordering Frogs Legs at Mike Lynn's w/the aplomb of an Old Bon Vivant . . .

CHRISTMAS CLOTHESLINE: Shopping after the annual Laws wearing rosey cheeks that almost matched the cardinal Lombardy Christmas luncheon at Orinda Country Club. Mildred red of her handsome Borgana coat . . . The Dentist Gene Garbarino's little girls in peppermint striped & red velvet dresses for the holidays.

That wasn't one of Santa's Elves. Just Polly McCready in stretch pants & a Christmasy-red Car Coat . . . Jackie Robinson in a classic plaid suit of bold red, green, yellow & black . . . Noemi Leonard purple hatted, the better to match her poiple suit . . .

NEAT IDEA: For New Year's Eve, a friend of ours pulled out an old pair of pumps, painted them profusely w/glitter-glue & then splashed confetti sequins all over same & Voila! The neatest pair of glamorous New Year's slippers you've ever seen!

Dressing for the occasion, Jim & Lucie Hupp wearing furry astrakan hats,, sprigs of holly & long striped woolen scarves for their old-fashioned Caroling rounds . . .

CHRISTMAS DAY, Jim Hupp & son Dave a duo in red brass-buttoned vests & those long stocking caps, the kind you wear ice skating in the East.

FOR MORE about one of my favorite families, we nominate for Cook & Artist of the week, The Little Baker Laurie Hupp who did her Gingerbread Man up, not only brown, but riding bicycles, in the likeness of her father, her expectant sister Lucie Ann, & flapper-friends & assorted characters depicting the personalities she presented them to . . .

TRAVEL NOTES: Ramona & Jim MacDonald holidaying in Hawaii w/dghtr. Katie . . . Helen & George Vudek off to Maryland & NYC to dig a little of that Snowman Scene . . . Crusing to Hawaii without a care in the world, Inez & Ed Maeshner aboard the Matsonia . . . The Fenn Wilsons went home to St. Louis to hang up their stockings & the Gerry Pixleys, Dick Calhouns, Jack Buchters were more of the ski fans who took to the snow country for the holidays .

Jean & Joe Downs are at the annual family clambake at Palm Springs which party incl. the good company of Jean's aunt, Gracie Allen & husband George Burns.

Family of the Week

HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS after an early December visit to their former stamping grounds (during law college days) in Boston are Connie and Jim Benney shown here with their three children, swim champs all—Jimmie, 12, Margaret, 11, and Duncan, 7, in the living room of their Miner Road home. San Francisco-born, Jim is a rare native, was raised in Walnut Creek and attended WC Grammar School 30 years ago. A corporation lawyer with a SF firm, Jim is president of Pine Grove Parents' Club, a director of Orinda Park, Inc., has served on the Incorporation Committee and with the Minerinda Property Owners' Association. Both Jim and Connie (she's partial to library work in our schools) take active part in the Orinda Democrats and Benney chairmaned the United Democratic Fund in Contra Costa County last year. Their sons swim for Orinda Park while Margaret earns her ribbons year 'round with the Aquabears. The winter months, when swimming is at a minimum, give the Benneys a chance to indulge in their favorite past time, BRIDGE, and they're GOOD!

The Sociables

By MARIE MONAHAN

THE SUMMING UP . . . Orindans decked their halls with holly, donned their gay apparel and are still not resting merry from the continual round of holiday parties.

In honor of neighbors Phyllis and Dick McAdams who will move from one side of Orinda to the other, Charles and Grace Hanks hosted a Christmas dinner party at their handsome home on Camino Del Diablo.

Something different was the Christmas musicale to the tune of harp strings when Joel Andrews played for holiday guests at the home of Pat and Bill Borbridge. The distinguished harpist brought to the yuletide scene the ethereal sounds of an Elizabethan Day Christmas in old English courts . . . Guests here included Maryka and Rod Park of Orinda as well as her brother Jon deJong, a tall Dutchman who is conductor of the San Leandro Symphony.

Frank and Georgette Walker christened their new carpeting and interior decor (she had just refurbished the eleventh hour!) with their annual big bash for close friends and business associates at their Sleepy Hollow home.

The Lloyd Rasmussens were early December hosts to several gatherings at their pink bamboo house on Charles Hill Road . . . ditto the William Douglasses. Pat and Jim Anderson of Camino Sobrante scored an Ace with their holiday bout of bridge for eight couples. They are living in the house formerly occupied by Roger and Maille Olsen.

THE WASSAIL BOWL was out at the Dr. Jerome Donchins when Gwyn and Jerry hosted a happy gathering last Saturday night with the Rom Yedidias, Leonard Roths, Murray McNeils, Burt Brodys among those present and accounted for.

Parking was at a premium along Van Tassel Lane Saturday too, when Maudie and Matt Hammond bid friends to "come and talk of many things . . ." Two poised young Frenchmen, Messieurs Marcel and Alain, students at UC, lent a touch of continental elan among localities who were enchanted with the charming Parisians.

More for the merriment here were the George Hauers, Marge and Bill Douglass, Joe and Ed Thomas . . . The Cal Hagstroms telling of plans for a Danish Christmas celebration with his family.

On hand at the Hammonds too, were Dorothy and Art Lundblad who had attended the Winter Ball the previous night when their son Kurt served as escort for deb Sally Holabird . . . Newcomer Rozella Black Dazzelle, a former society scribe for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, was in for many rounds of introductions . . . Clarice Johnson in a decollete teal blue lace . . . her medic husband at home on hospital call.

OUT MINER ROAD, Connie and Tom Gibson, formerly of Piedmont, hung up the mistletoe in their new home and tossed a cocktail conclave for old and new friends. Robin and David Boone rolled out the red carpet for Christmas guests as did Hank and Marcia Zaccharias who gave a dinner party at their La Espiral home.

EGGNOG and Fruit cake parties included the traditional Open House given by Al and Elsie Harmon and in their charming home that Caroline calls her "gingerbread house," champagne toasts were served all around to a large crowd at the Jim Read's Richard Court residence.

OVER in Sleepy Hollow, Gail and Bill Hanford hosted a dinner party for 20 and Henry and Jan Soubielle held a neighborhood conclave around the cabbage bowl where canapes were royally roasted and guests admired the pine cone and wicker tree.

Among the many parties to ring out the Old and bring in the New is the one slated to take place at the Frank Brush menage.

Hats Off To...

Helen Drews Grade A Neighbor and Citizen

STREW THE SERPENTINE and shower the confetti, please, that smiling lady Helen Drews who epitomizes the Good Neighbor, thoughtful friend and active community member.

When son Carl (now married, living in Virginia with his wife and the Drews' grandson Donnie) was a small child around Canon Drive 20 years ago, the Drews had to hop all the way across to La Cuesta to locate him a playmate, children were THAT scarce!

NOW THE same street, Canon Drive, echoes with some 50-plus youngsters at play, many who started life wearing one of Helen's wonderful knitted caps.

THE TALL handsome woman, a native Californian, is a familiar face on the Election Board, spurns gardening in favor of floral arranging, sewing and expert baking. "I arrange flowers for the girls' weddings," smiles Helen, "and then knit bonnets when their first babies come along."

TOGETHER with husband Ernest who sings in the choir, she is an active member of Orinda Community Church, serves on the Altar Committee and is a member of the Women's Guild.

When Mr. Drews retires the end of January after more than 30 years as a monotype operator with University Press, the couple plan to "take things by ear," travel, putter, and enjoy "life in general"—something they've been practicing with good will and sincerity all their lives.

Orinda North Proposal Still Threatens Area

Decision on the proposed subdivision for 185 acres of land known as Orinda North is not due until February 6, when the request of builders Bryan and Murphy again comes before the Contra Costa County Planning Commission.

A public hearing on the matter held before the planning commission December 12 was closed after lengthy discussion and the matter taken under advisement. The planning commission will take a field trip to the site this month.

THE BUILDERS originally requested variances which would permit them to construct 200 homes on the 185-acre parcel. Some of these lots were less than one-half acre, some as small as a quarter of an acre.

The Orinda Association and other groups in Orinda are opposed to the subdivision. They object to the small lots, the scarring of the hills by bulldozers which they believe would result from necessary grading, loss of trees and natural beauty of the terrain.

Late Tuesday afternoon, December 12, a revised map of the proposed subdivision was submitted to the county. Neither the county nor those objecting to the project had sufficient time to study the new map prior to the meeting that night, according to commission members.

Russell Griffith of the planning commission told The Sun that essentially the new map compiled with county ordinances. However, the situation still remains a matter of grave concern to Orinda residents, as evidenced by the following letter from Dick Bartle of 238 Hall Drive.

BARTLE, who is chairman of the planning committee of the Orinda Association wrote the following to The Sun:

"The proposed Orinda North has encountered strong united opposition from the Orinda community but the strength and solidity of this position must be demonstrated over the next several months if we are to prevent misuse of one of the most important pieces of land in the community.

"There are indications that members of the county planning commission agree that this subdivision plan is undesirable and definitely unsuited to Orinda.

"Because the developer has concentrated on technical compliance with an ordinance, rejection will be made somewhat more difficult than once expected.

"The commission will be making a courageous decision if it turns down this subdivision and will be acting in the best interests of Orinda and the county.

"THE COMMISSION must have solid support and vigorous support in opposing the plan and Orinda must back the commission's desire to prevent bulldozers from tearing up our natural terrain.

"Rejection may require the commission and the board of supervisors to declare now that no variances will be permitted in Orinda North in the future.

"The commission and the board should know beyond any doubt that Orinda supports firm action to reject this subdivision plan."

Orindan's Grandson Given Promotion

L. Raymond Fageol, grandson of F. R. Fageol of 12 El Sueno, Orinda, founder of the Twin Coach Company, has been elected president of DASCO Vending, Inc., La Mesa.

Santa Maria Road Will Retain Name

Santa Maria Way will remain by that name, due to the quiet pleas of the Reverend David Harrington who Tuesday persuaded the Contra Costa Board of Supervisors to retain the name.

Father Harrington, pastor of Santa Maria's Catholic Church appeared before the board to ask that Santa Maria Way not be changed to Altarinda Road as suggested by a subdivider.

The priest said many of the church parishoners had learned to know that church by the street and that changing the name would alter this.

He added that the original building had stood on Santa Maria Way for about 70 years. The supervisors agreed, voting unanimously.

Central Valley Bank Increases Interest Rates

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors, Central Valley National Bank, held today it was agreed to increase the interest rates on savings, stated Charles P. Partridge, chairman of the board.

The bank will pay 3½% interest on all savings on a daily interest basis, payable and compounded quarterly.

Four per cent interest will be paid on Certificates of Deposit of one year or more.

This increase in interest rates will be effective January 1, 1962.

Goren Bridge Instruction Is Offered

Mrs. Otto Sonnenschein of Orinda will give instruction in Goren bridge as part of the Berkeley YW-Wives program beginning January 18 at 10 a.m.

She will teach fundamentals to beginners and supervise play for more experienced players.

Also scheduled for YW-Wives, which meets every Thursday, are gym-swim, including badminton, calisthenics, volleyball and swimming, and art instruction given by Mrs. William Nixon. Lunch and programs to suit the interests of the members follow the morning activities.

Mrs. K. F. Winslow of Berkeley is president, and Mrs. W. E. Simpson of Orinda is vice-president. Other Orindans in the group are Mrs. A. Azaro, Mrs. M. R. Hansen and Mrs. C. T. O'Konski.

underwriters and fire prevention bureaus."

Koch was instrumental in making fire drills in Orinda schools an effective safety program. He also sponsored activities observing Fire Prevention Week, particularly in the schools through which families can be reached.

Diligent and enthusiastic as he is regarding his work, Bill Koch is never too busy to take part in family and community activities.

EVEN WITH two of his children married and the youngest at Miramonte High School, young people still occupy a good deal of his time.

Bill, Jr., a fireman with the Orinda department lives with his wife and family in Clayton. At the time Koch was interviewed, Bill's wife was expecting her second child.

Like so many grandparents at a time like this, both Mr. and Mrs. Koch were anticipating taking care of Bill's 14-month-old child during his mother's absence.

Their daughter Helen is married to Chet Clark, former owner of Black's Market, and they have two children, Kathy, 13 and Laurie, 7. "Helen was Orinda's first baby," Koch recalled, adding with humor, "she was born in front of the Claremont Hotel!"

THE KOCHS' youngest son, Jerry, is a freshman at Miramonte. Jerry's family was killed in an automobile accident and Bill and Emily Koch cared for the boy immediately afterwards.

"We all became so attached to Jerry, that we decided to adopt him," Koch remembered fondly.

Recalling other happenings involving his children, Koch proudly said, but with a chuckle, "I am probably the only man who can say he is a lifetime girl scout!"

Koch was honored at the Diablo Country Club by the Diablo Valley Council of Girl Scouts, who, in recognition of his work for girl scouts, made him an honorary lifetime scout.

HE HAS been active in both boy and girl scouting for more than 16 years. He has helped more than 300 boy scouts to earn merit badges and is still active in this capacity.

An active member of Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Koch commented, "I would like to do more, much more for church, but time is always a problem. Church work is a privilege we can enjoy here, a privilege that too often is denied in other countries."

Koch has served on the civic affairs committee of the Orinda Association and is an honorary member of the Orinda Rotary Club. He has also served with the Orinda Beautification Committee and worked with the various garden clubs.

Proud of his country and his community, Bill Koch speaks with humbleness of his own wonderful service to his community and fellow residents.

Congratulations, Bill Koch, Man of the Year!

Little Miss or Master 1962, the first baby born after midnight December 31, that is, will have an array of prizes waiting in local stores.

Fifteen area shops are participating in the First Baby Contest, with prizes galore for the new arrival.

Here are the rules: Winning baby must be born in this area (Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Canyon) and his or her parents must reside here.

Exact time of the baby's birth must be certified by the attending physician. In the event of a tie, awards will be made at committee's discretion. You must pick up your prizes by February 3, 1962.

Everything from a book on how to learn to ski at an early age, to layettes and shoes and toppers has been set aside for some lucky infant.

Stores participating are: Charlene's, Black's Market, Benedicts, Sutton's Shoes, Pixie Shop, Moraga Bootery, Lafayette Pharmacy, Link's Appliances, Country Club Togs, Orinda Hardware, Sporthaus, Heaven to Eleven, Kandi's Children's Shop, Harry's Nursery and Johnson's Baby News.

Association Elects Officers

A special meeting of the Orinda Association was held last night at the Orinda Community Church.

New officers to serve the association for 1962 were elected from among the members of the board after The Sun went to press last night.

Mariners Give Program for Rotary Club

Girl Scout Mariners from the troop ship Dreadnought presented a program for the members of the Orinda Rotary Club Wednesday noon at Mike Lynn's.

Mariners, under the direction of their leader, Alyson deLaveaga, presented songs and a color film showing the jamboree of mariners held in Colorado last year.

William Brannan was program chairman. Next week's program will be under the direction of Joe Longacre, chairman, according to Clarence Betz, Rotary publicity chairman.

No Sidewalks? Try This

Concerned with the safety of your youngsters as they walk to and from school on roads where sidewalks are lacking?

Take a look at what the people in Happy Valley, Lafayette, have done . . . and are still doing. It could be done anywhere.

Furthermore, it has been done without petitioning the school board, without becoming involved with the county and with no increases in taxes to any resident.

THE WALKWAY, already on the way to being complete, is a three-foot wide, all-weather walkway which will eventually traverse the entire three-mile length of Happy Valley.

Composed of clean crushed rock laid three inches deep within stringers of two by three-inch redwood, the walkway was started in sections where the children have no bus service.

First the stringers were secured by two by two-inch redwood stakes, spaced four feet on centers; later, because the redwood stakes tended to split, tapered steel wedges were substituted. The walkway is intended for pedestriaans only. Bicycles and horses are not permitted to use it.

Brain child of the Happy Valley Improvement Association, the walkway is the result of many people cooperating to achieve its existence.

TWO YEARS ago, when James Moore of 3802 Happy Valley Road was president of the association, plans were formulated to build the walkway.

Five committees were formed to accomplish the goal. The committees are design, Blair Tullock, chairman; construction, Arthur Hardy, chairman; financial, Fortney Stark, chairman; insurance, Ed Pike, Jr., chairman; legal, Edward Rosston, chairman. Walter Wendt was the original walkway chairman.

Many, many people have volunteered their talents, time and solicited funds, according to James Moore. Robert Kahn of 3684 Happy Valley Road is current president of the Happy Valley Improvement Association.

It was the responsibility of the financial committee to look for funds. The first aid was obtained from contributions from the association itself and the Parents Club of Happy Valley School which gave several hundred dollars.

Then the committee launched a fund raising campaign through solicitation letters to individual residents, who have brought the total to about $1500 exclusive of the contributions of volunteer labor.

PERMISSION to pass was the responsibility of the property use committee, whose members asked land owners to let the walkway pass across the front of their property.

The legal and insurance committees prepared a printed "revocable license" form. A property owner who signs the form consents to installation of the walkway in a specified location, allows entry for construction and maintenance and grants permission to the public to use the path.

The statement specifically reserves to him the right to revoke permission at any time. The association further advises property owners to close off the walkway on their property one day a year in order to prevent its eventual dedication as a thoroughfare by virtue of uninterrupted, unchallenged public use over a long period.

Where insurmountable obstacles or unfavorable terrain lay in the path of the walkway, it occasionally switched sides on the street. However, the crosswalks are clearly marked for safety of children and warning for vehicles.

ORIGINALLY the construction committee used all volunteer labor. As it became apparent the work was a considerable undertaking which would extend over a longer period of time, the committee encouraged financial contributions in preference of volunteer labor.

College students were hired to do the routine work, while association members continued to supervise and provide special skills. According to the committee, the students were good workers, but the plan brought with it complications of employment records, pay deductions and other "paper work."

Therefore, the association decided to carry out the remaining phases of the work by hiring the services of a landscaping contractor. The contractor utilizes his employees in slack periods and personally supervises work on special projects such as bridging and cut and fill.

ED ROSSO of 1070 Thompson Road is the landscape contractor hired by the association.

Areas of heaviest foot traffic and greatest hazard along the main road are now flanked with a finished walkway.

The project is generally accepted in the valley as an effective and economical answer to the need for safety. Although initiated for the safety of the children, adults are finding the walkway advantageous too. It is now possible to go for a stroll or return from an evening at the neighbors without fearing being struck by a car or stepping in a mud puddle.

Citizens in other areas interested in constructing such a walkway may contact Robert Kahn of the Happy Valley Improvement Association for further information.

Recognition of the project was given in the December 21 issue of Sunset Magazine. Those interested in the construction of the walkway will find diagrams at the conclusion of the story in Sunset Magazine.

A SAFE WALKWAY for children traveling to and from school has been provided in Happy Valley, Lafayette by the cooperative action of residents. A finished walkway now flanks most sections of heaviest foot traffic and greatest hazard along the main road. Scampering happily along the walk are John, Jeff, Sandy and Jim Holmes.

THIS DIAGRAM is a rough floor plan of the new Walnut Creek Municipal Court at 1250 Locust Street, Walnut Creek, serving the entire mid-county. There are 4200 square feet of space here, compared to some 1800 square feet in the old building. Note the spaciousness of the main court room.

Judge Plans Ceremony

By NORMAN COLBY

Municipal court justice in the central county will go "first cabin" on January 8.

Judge Betsy FitzGerald Rahn next weekend will help supervise the hauling of law books, records, desks and equipment from the old judicial court building at Locust and East streets to the new quarters, covering the entire main floor of the Walnut Creek Veterans Memorial Building at 1250 Locust Street, south of Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

The moving job may be tough, and may require both Saturday of next week and the following Sunday—but there will be no tears of regret in the judge's sky-blue eyes.

I'D CARRY all that stuff by myself if I had to," she commented, unsentimentally.

Judge Rahn has already learned to dispense the law of the land in a matchbox.

She wants to try her skill where there are walnut paneling, air conditioning, controlled acoustics, sufficient lighting and lots of room.

The renovation of the memorial building's main floor was completed in five months at a cost of some $71,000 by the Sal Cola Construction Company. The county is paying the bill. Architect is A. Cantin of Lafayette.

THERE IS about 4200 square feet of working space in the new quarters, compared to about 1800 square feet in the old building, now offered for lease by owner Lou Very.

County and local officials will have a chance to see the entire layout on January 8 at 9 a.m., when Judge Rahn will hold a brief opening ceremony.

"It will have to be fairly brief, for the court is in session at 9:30. But I hope they can tour the building and see what the taxpayer's money is buying," said Judge Rahn. (See diagram).

Letters of invitation will be sent to the supervisors, city ccuncilmen and officials, the district attorney, sheriff, California Highway Patrol, various county and local officials.

THE COURT hours will continue to be 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday to Friday.

Officials who will move with Judge Rahn include Mrs. Betty Dudley, court clerk; Clinton Jones, marshal; George Sciacqua, deputy marshal; Paul Lamat, reporter.

Municipal court proceedings include civil suits involving up to $5000, and misdemeanor criminal actions.

The veterans organization, American Legion Post 115, will continue to have certain rights of use to the main floor, and the full use of lower level, including a kitchen and large recreation room.

ADDITIONAL storage facilities have been installed by the county, under lease arrangements made by Ralph Lindsey of the county administrator's office, at the direction of Supervisor Tom Coll.

The main court room is in the building's dance hall, and the room can be cleared for social events by moving the jury rostrum, which is on wheels, and the portable railing which will separate the court proceedings from the audience.

Obituaries

Charles Martin

Funeral services for Charles H. Martin, 88, a native of Pacheco, were held December 18 at Lough-Ouiment Chapel in Concord. Burial was at Lafayette Community Cemetery.

He died last week in a Martinez hospital after a brief illness.

Martin was a member of a pioneer family in this area.

He was born in the old building on Highway 21 which is now in Pacheco in the 1860's.

His father was a stage driver for many years on the Concord-Martinez run and part owner of a general store which operated the Pacheco Inn.

Martin and his family were living in San Francisco in 1906 when the earthquake and fire hit that city.

After living in Oakland for 37 years, Martin returned to this area and has resided for the last 15 years at 3241 N. Main Street.

Martin was one of the original founders and a director of radio station KROW in Oakland.

He is survived by his wife, Minnie, of Pleasant Hill; two sons, Charles H. Martin, III, of Walnut Creek; Shirley Martin of Walnut Creek, manager of the Martinez Branch of Bank of America; a daughter, Mrs. Wilmuth Gustasson of Pleasant Hill; 11 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren.

Halverson

Funeral services for Mrs. Phoebe Halverson, 75, of 99 School Street, Danville, were held December 20 at the San Ramon Valley Chapel, Danville.

Mrs. Halverson, a local resident for 53 years, died last Friday.

She was a former beauty shop operator and member of the East Bay Cosmetologists, the Redwing Council of Pocahontas, the San Ramon Valley Congregational Church.

She was a past Noble Grand of Danville Lodge of Rebekah, a founder of the Walnut Creek Business and Professional Women's Club, a charter member of the Mt. Diablo Court 84, Order Amaranth, Concord, and a member of the Danville Women's Club.

Survivors include her husband, Roy; two sons, Leroy of Danville and Howard of Sonoma; a brother and sister, and five grandchildren.

August Vedel

Funeral services for August A. Vedel, 86, of Pleasant Hill were held December 16 at the MacFarlane-Bryant Chapel in Concord.

Vedel died last week in a Walnut Creek convalescent home.

Burial was in Memory Gardens, Concord.

A native of France, Vedel lived at 142 Beth Drive. He was a retired farmer.

He is survived by two sons, Pierre of Concord, and August, who lives in Montana; a daughter, Mrs. Blanche McBride, Pleasant Hill; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Zimmerman

Services were held December 19 for Mrs. Lydia Elmira Zimmerman at Chapel in the Valley, Lafayette mortuary, at 2 p.m.

Reverend Stanley Smith of St. Anselm's Church officiated. Interment was at Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland.

Mrs. Zimmerman died December 15 at her home, 173 Oakvale Road, Walnut Creek. She was 93. She leaves her husband, Ami Zimmerman and a daughter, Mrs. Edith Lindquist.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Pythian Sisters.

Chericoni

Funeral services for Mrs. Emilia Chericoni of 1622 Live Oak Way, Walnut Creek, were held at St. Mary's Church, Walnut Creek. The rosary was recited at Hull's Walnut Creek Chapel.

Survivors include her son, Louis, Walnut Creek; and a daughter, Mrs. Susan Gambetti of Oakland.

Moyer

Funeral services for Charles M. Moyer, 18, airman and son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Walrath of 1155 Walker Avenue, Walnut Creek, were held December 16 at Hull's Walnut Creek Chapel.

Young Moyer was killed December 12 in an auto-pedestrian accident at Mojave. He had been a member of the United States Air Force for 11 months.

Brandon

Funeral services for Samuel J. Brandon, 49, a retired U.S. Air Force major, were held December 15 at Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

Brandon, a resident of 146 Los Altos Avenue, Walnut Creek, died after a lengthy illness.

Survivors include his widow, Virginia, and two sons.

THE BIG JOBS are being filled at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board building, 1343 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. Jernigan Is Realtors' Executive Vice-President

Roger R. Jernigan of Walnut Creek is the new executive vice-president for the 900-member Contra Costa Real Estate Board, it was announced by Charles Bailey, president, and J. N. Smith, president-elect.

Bailey said, Jernigan was the unanimous choice of the selection committee and directors who screened a large number of qualified candidates.

Jernigan, a real estate and trade association management executive, has a background in administration, personnel management and public relations, Smith said.

He was formerly the assistant manager and public relations director of the Oakland Real Estate Board for two years prior to assuming the position of executive vice-president of the West Contra Costa Board of Realtors.

The Contra Costa Real Estate Board is one of the largest in the area with more than 180 realtor brokerage offices and about 700 salespeople.

Jernigan will be assisted by a seven-member staff and will be officially installed at the annual inauguration, January 10 at the Elks Club, Walnut Creek, with the new officers and directors.

Jernigan has been a resident of Walnut Creek since coming to the Bay Area in 1954. The family resides at 972 Scotts Lane, Walnut Creek.

Boys Take to Raft for 115 Mile River Trip!

Toting a 5x11-foot raft on a truck, two youngsters set out Tuesday for Colusa, where they began a 115-mile trip down the Sacramento River. The boys hope to reach the Rio Vista Bridge north of Antioch by the weekend.

Both students at Acalanes High School, the two adventurers are John James, 15, son of Mrs. Murial James of 3545 Eastview Drive, and Quentin Young, 17, son of Mrs. Rosemarie White, 3300 Springhill Road.

BUILT with a plywood deck attached to a strong wooden frame laced to four truck tire tubes, the raft has a rudder, two seven-foot pontoons and an 11-foot mast to support the tent and an anchor light.

Supplies include a tent, several changes of warm clothing, flashlights, canned heat for cooking and food which for the most part consists of canned goods.

Built by the boys for a total cost of $5, the raft weighs 200 pounds. The tubes and some of the wood came free, but the pontoons, designed by the boys had to be built by a metal worker.

John and Quentin began planning the trip last fall but actual construction of the raft and mapping their course was done in the past two weeks.

THE BOYS said they intended to travel duringthe day, then put in to shore at night. Both plan to stay aboard unless their supplies run low.

Their enthusiasm and excitement apparently is contageous, for John said that about eight school friends have indicated interest in a similar journey.

He added that if this trip goes well, several rafts might be built for a 200-mile river trip this summer.

CSEA Elects Fred Marshall

Fred Marshall was elected president of the newly formed Orinda Union School District Chapter No. 320 of the California School Employees' Association. This chapter is comprised solely of classified school employees who work in the various Orinda schools and in the district office.

The other officers chosen by the group are: Norman Bailey, vice-president; Mrs. Caroline Harrison, secretary; Mrs. Carolyn McGraw, treasurer and Walter Cova, reporter.

The California School Employees' Association (CSEA) is a professional educational association of approximately 20,000 members, with chapters in school districts throughout California.

To this organization belong the "classified" school employees who work as secretaries, custodians, gardeners, bus drivers; or in other classifications of clerical and maintenance services—plus the employees in the school cafeterias.

Through CSEA, the classified school employees initiate and participate in various educational programs aimed at increasing their job efficiency; raising standards of service to the schools and the community, as well as promoting employees' welfare, and to establishing and maintaining a spirit of friendly cooperation with the boards of education.

The Orinda Chapter officers were installed recently by regional representative Sam McCollom.

Guests of honor were state office CSEA officers: Roy Keys, 1st vice-president; Clint Mortenson, 2nd vice-president; Harold Prough, Jr., past president and Mrs. Elinora Hoyt, area director of Area B and Howard Rittenhouse, area director of Area D, who praised the group highly for their action and promised the full support and cooperation of CSEA.

Guthrie Named VP for Conejo Valley

Appointment of Leslie C. Guthrie, Jr., as vice-president in charge of development with immediate assignment to Conejo Valley, the near-legendary planned community in Ventura County, was announced today by Janss Corporation, the developers of Westwood in Los Angeles.

Guthrie, of 50 Linda Vista, will commute between northern and southern California as he completes development of Laketowers on Lake Merritt in Oakland. He designed this 17-story business and apartment project, the largest of its type and scope in the Bay Area.

HE WILL continue to function as vice-president of 1200 Lake shore, Inc., owners of Laketowers, and as vice-president of Walnut Creek Properties, El Dorado Investment Company, and Madison Management Company, respectively, all in the Bay Area.

Now 35, Guthrie has been a contractor since 1948 when he took an engineering degree from UCLA and received his Navy commission, after service as an enlisted man in World War II.

He was recalled to active duty from 1952-59, and in 1958 obtainel a naval officers civil engineering degree from Rensalaer Polytechnic Institute. He won first prize in 1954 and second in 1956 in the annual Navy Engineering Corps competition for the thesis adding most to professional engineering knowledge of engineering.

HE ALSO received a commendation from the bureau of aeronautics for outstanding work in the swift conversion of a surplus aluminum plant in El Segundo for production of aircraft during the Korea emergency.

Mrs. Guthrie is the former Capitola Kissane Roberts, a UCLA classmate. The couple have one son and four little girls.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE AND RESOLUTION TO DEDICATE SCHOOL PROPERTY

BEFORE THE GOVERNING BOARD OF LAFAYETTE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF CONTRA COSTA COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that at a regular open meeting of the Governing Board of Lafayette School District, Contra Costa County, State of California, held on the 13th day of November, 1961, the following resolution was adopted by a four-fifths vote of all of the members of said governing board.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that a public meeting of the Governing Board of Lafayette School District, Contra Costa County, will be held at 3477 School Street, Lafayette, California, on the 8th day of January, 1962, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock p.m. of said day for a public meeting upon the question of making the dedication referred to in said resolution.

The resolution above referred to is as follows:

WHEREAS, Lafayette School District of Contra Costa County is the owner and in possession of the real property described below, which property is not now or will not at the time of delivery of title or possession be needed for school classroom buildings by this District. Said real property is more particular described as follows:

Portion of Lots 14 thru 20 inclusive in Block 2, as said Lots and Block are shown on the map entitled "Map No. 1, Lafayette Homesites, by the R. N. Burgess Company, a portion of the Rancho Laguna de Los Palos Colorados, Contra Costa County, California", which map was map was filed in the office of the Recorder of said County, on October 6, 1914, in book 12 of Maps, at page 266, described as follows:

A strip of land 10 feet in width the southern line of which is parallel with and 10 feet southerly, measured at right angles from the northern line, said northern line being the entire northern lines of said Lots 14 thru 20 inclusive.

Excepting therefrom that portion of said Lot 14 lying within the parcel of land described in the deed to the County of Contra Costa, recorded February 11, 1960, under Recorder's Serial No. 8707, in Volume 3555 of Official Records of said County at page 268.

AND IT APPEARING that it is for the best interests of this District that a non-exclusive easement upon the property above described be conveyed to Contra Costa County Sanitary District.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that it is the intention of the Governing Board of Lafayette School District of Contra Costa County, and this Board does hereby declare that it is its intention to convey and grant to Contra Costa Sanitary District a non-exclusive easement upon the real property above described. No consideration is to be paid to the District in connection with such grants and conveyances.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a public meeting of this Governing Board will be held at 3477 School Street, Lafayette, California, on the 8th day of January, 1962, at 7:30 o'clock p.m. of said day for a public hearing upon the question of making such conveyances.

How About Men in PTA? See Suburbia Today!

Ten years ago, a man at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting was something of a curiosity; today, one-third of all the 12 million members are fathers determined to cope with the man-sized problems of modern education. A report on this successful invasion if the country's 47,000 PTA's is the lead feature in the January issue of Suburbia Today, which will come to you with the January 5 edition of your Sun.

Then, for the benefit of club members, hostesses, committee chairmen, and other normal souls, there's an article by Philip Wylie, famous author of Generation of Vipers, in which he confesses he not only has trouble remembering names, but most faces, alas, escape him as well.

Kay Nelson's household includes her daughter Hilary, age 10, and a mare named Nina. This month, Mrs. Nelson tells about what happened when Nina came to live with them.

Garden editor John Brimer discusses prize winning All-American Selections, and some old favorites that are making news this year— verbena, feverfew, phlox and hollyhocks on five-foot stems.

The food pages for January are devoted to "Special of the Southland"—Kitchen-tested gumbos and beaten biscuits and pies and Burgoo, the traditional Derby Day stew that takes six hours to fix and worth every minute of it.

Our news column, "Getting Around", should prove an invaluable aid to road-weary tourists, dentists, and fathers with lots of unmarried daughters still on their hands.

Social Security Rates Going Up

Social Security tax rates will increase one-eighth of 1 per cent for employees and employers effective January 1.

The employee will pay a new total of 3⅛ per cent of his income and the employer will add another 3⅛ per cent for the employee, making the total tax paid for the employee 6¼ per cent.

The tax will be 4.7 per cent for self-employed workers, on the basis of a 2/10 of 1 per cent hike.

The tax applies to the first $4800 of annual earnings by employees, so the maximum annual amount of payroll tax will be $300 instead of $288. The $300 is paid $150 by the employee and $150 by the employer.

The self-employed have to earn $400 per year before they are taxed, and the tax is applied to all earnings up to $4800. The new maximum tax will be $225.60 instead of $216 per year.

Do Something About the Hump Says Governor

Governor Edmund (Pat) Brown has told his public works director to do something about the big hump on the Oakland Bay Bridge.

He wrote to Robert B. Bradford, ". . . you are authorized to take any steps necessary to insure an obsolute minimum of traffic interruption in the future.

"I particularly insist that the public be given ample warning and full explanation when the project will unavoidably cause delays in traffic movement," Brown said.

Brown said the project undertaken by the Charles Harney Company and directed by Norman C. Rabb of the Division of Bay Toll Crossings, ". . . has been handled with indifference to public needs."

Gov't Handbook Is Published

A revised edition of a handbook on local government, published by the office of County Superintendent Floyd Marchus, is being distributed to the schools of Contra Costa.

"Your Local Government—It Serves You" is designed for the use of teachers and older students. The revised edition is the successor to the initial publication in 1956.

Increased study of local government in elementary schools is anticipated, Dr. Marchus said, because new legislation has added the study of civics to sixth and seventh grades.

As before, the subject is also treated in the eighth grade and in high school social studies classes.

The handbook is intended to be used by teachers in the elementary grades and by both teachers and students at the high school and adult level.

Winter Weather Brings Chills

The mercury dipped below freezing four nights during the past week and even the day time temperatures let people know that winter is here with its penetrating chill.

Cancer Society Urges Regular Medical Checkup

All Contra Costans should make a New Year's resolution to see their doctors at least once a year, Dr. Jonas Schneider, president of the Contra Costa County Branch of the American Cancer Society, urged today.

Pointing out that more than one million Americans who had cancer five or more years ago have had no further sign of the disease and, therefore, are considered cured, Dr. Schneider said the best insurance for health today is a regular, complete physical examination.

"ONE CANCER patient in every three is now being cured, whereas a few years ago only one in four was being saved," Dr. Schneider said. "This indicates an additional yearly saving of 42,000 lives. However, if all cases of cancer were detected in time, one-half of those with cancer could be cured."

The cancer society president suggested a good way to remember to schedule a check-up is for each person to give himself or herself a birthday present of this kind.

"SO RESOLVE now to make 1962 a healthy New Year for yourself and your family. Check your new calendar right now and make an appointment with your family physician," the cancer society president advised. "In the meantime, watch for any one of cancer's seven danger signals."

Free booklets describing these danger signals are available upon request at the Contra Costa society's headquarters at 2030 North Main Street in Walnut Creek, telephone YEllowstone 4-7640.

Getting Job Tough for Recipients

Most men and women living on county welfare money need training before they can compete in the present labor market, and even then the prospects are dim for many of them.

The early results of the county's effort to find jobs for 212 persons on relief here were outlined by Vocational Service Officer Juanita Stevenson to Welfare Director William Golden.

Of the 212, only six have been put on jobs, but another 100 are being trained for work other than a common laborer's tasks.

Here's the Conclusion Of Mrs. Cory's Report

(This is the continuation of Mrs. Helen Cory's letter from Russia which was started in last week's Sun. Mrs. Cory was a long-time resident of Lafayette and a principal in the Lafayette school system.)

I have been invited to some delightful social events. One of the highlights was a blacktie dinner at Spaso House when the Ambassador returned from the States in October. Another was the Marine Ball, an annual event wherever the Marines are. It was at Spaso House in the ballroom and a lovely sight to see with many of the ladies in long formals and the military officers from all the friendly embassies in their colorful uniforms.

It was on November 11, but was supposed to have been on the 10th which is the birthday of the Marines. The Ambassador make a very appropriate and very short speech.

I attended a reception at the Iranian Embassy which was held on their national day. I was a luncheon guest of the British Ambassador, Sir Frank and Lady Roberts, and I've been to many luncheons and dinners and restaurants here and there. Most recently I was invited by the Israeli Ambassador to attend their reception, The Fete of Lights, or la "fete de la lumiere" as the invitation said.

Yesterday was a big day. I started out with a Russian language lesson. Then Nadya Pavlovna and I went swimming. The Russians really go in for swimming here. They have many outdoor pools throughout the city and one of the largest is near Spaso House. The water is heated and the natives swim all winter.

As the Ambassador says, they go swimming to get thawed out. It was really delightful. The outside temperature was warm, just a few degrees above freezing, but the temperature of the water was warmer. We stayed in for an hour. The dressing rooms and showers and the many sections of the pool are all very clean. The ladies who took our coats and boots when we first went in were watching us swim—though we didn't know it.

When we were about to leave they asked Nadya Pavlovna where I was from that I had learned to swim so well. They admired my swimming and told Nadya P. to tell we that I was welcome to come again any time. I plan to go regularly.

After the swim, we came back to Spaso House where I just had time to dry my hair and get changed and then go downstairs where Jennie, the Ambassador's daughter, had her whole class and all her teachers from Russian School. There are about 10 American children here going to Russian School. We went into the ballroom and saw the movie, 101 Dalmatians.

Unfortunately, I had to leave early as the Israeli Ambassador had invited me to attend the special ceremony they had where they light the lights and present the children with gifts. There are only eight families here from Israel. There are three older children, two girls and a boy, and they are all in my class at school. (In my class of 19 children, there are seven nationalities represented.) I returned home at eight just in time to have dinner with the Ambassador and Mrs. Thompson and Misha, the ballet dancing teacher, and Nina who used to dance in the Bolshoi and is now a teacher in the Bolshoi Dancing School.

Thanksgiving day here was nice. Traditionally the students from the University—the American students—are invited and there were 50 for dinner altogether. We had roast turkeys and all the trimmings. Otto, the Danish cook at Spaso, stood at his carving table at one end of the state dining room with his high cook's hat on and carved the turkeys.

Four years ago the Anglo-American School had about 35 pupils. Two years ago about 80. Last year 120 from 21 countries. This year so far we have 127 from 19 countries. The sole income of the school is from tuition so the school is very poor.

The tuition is raised every year but still there are many things the school needs. In spite of all the handicaps, we have a pretty good curriculum. The teachers are from all over—two British, one Canadian, and two Californians, and the rest are wives of British and American embassy personnel—some trained teachers and some not.

I find it very trying to teach and be the principal, too, as the school has never before had a trained principal, and everything needs to be done. You can't imagine how difficult it is to get even the simplest thing done. And the time it takes. My biggest hope is that I get a few of the most important things done before the year is over.

The parents of one of my Israeli pupils live in a cooperative village in Israel (when they are home) where they have real communal living. They want me to stay in Moscow for two years instead of one and then go and teach in their village. That would be an experience!

We've been working like slaves at school getting ready for the Christmas program.

We had our first snow on November 10. Since then it has snowed and thawed and frozen several times. It got as low as 26 degrees below zero (C), but last Tuesday's snow melted and the temperature has been a few degrees above zero since. Then yesterday as Nadya Pavlovna and I were leaving the swimming pool, it started snowing again.

It is still on the ground and a bit colder. I hope it lasts this time. As Nadya says, we need a good frost, meaning 25 degrees below zero. I agree as I bought some skates last week and am real anxious to learn.

HELEN CORY.

(Ed. Note: Mrs. Cory would like to receive some letters from her friends and former pupils here. Those interested in writing to her may address Mrs. Helen Cory, American Embassy (M), Helsinki, Finland.)

Go to Church Sunday

BAPTIST

"A New Life for the New Year" is the subject for the message at the morning worship service at the First Baptist Church of Orinda-Lafayette.

Reverend Lawrence C. Guido, pastor, will speak at the 11 a.m. service.

A candlelight service for the observance of holy communion will be one of the features of the watch night service. The communion service will be just preceding the conclusion of the service at midnight.

Other features will include a mediation by the pastor, participation by those attending, and a time of refreshments and fellowship.

The watch night service will begin at 9:30 p.m. It is open to the public.

The church is located at 4300 El Nido Ranch Road. Sunday school is at 9:45 a.m., and nursery facilities are always available at each service.

METHODIST

"It's Inventory Time Again" will be the sermon topic of the Reverend George E. Berry this Sunday at the Lafayette Methodist Church, 955 Moraga Road, Lafayette. Two Sunday morning worship services are held, 9:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Church school for 3 year olds through high school is held at 9:30 a.m. An adult Bible class is held at 9:30 a.m.

Youth groups for 7th and 8th graders and high school youth are held at 7 p.m. at the church every Sunday evening. Those interested are cordially invited to attend.

A study class, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, will be held for four Wednesday mornings at 10 a.m., in the church lounge. The subject will be "The Meaning of Suffering" conducted by Mrs. Erwin Workman. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend.

EPISCOPAL

Sunday, the services at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, St. Stephen's Drive and Las Vegas Road, Orinda will consist of the holy communion at 7:30 a.m., the litany and ante-communion at 9 a.m. and 11 a.m.

Wednesday there will be a service of holy communion followed by a service of christian healing at 10 a.m. Child care will be provided.

All women of the church are invited to the annual meeting of the United Church Women of the Contra Costa County Council of Churches to be held in St. Stephen's January 5. They will join in holy communion at 12:30 p.m. and hold their meeting from 1 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. The meeting will be followed by refreshments. Child care provided.

CHRISTIAN

Reverend Darwin Mann has chosen "Religion According to Whom" as his sermon topic for the 10 a.m. service of the Lafayette Christian Church. There will be church classes for all ages at 9 a.m. Nursery care is provided during both hours.

There will be no youth group meetings this week.

Members and friends of the church are invited to open house at the home of Reverend and Mrs. Mann on January 1 from 3 to 5.

Choir members will meet Thursday at 7 p.m. for rehearsal. The spiritual growth group will have its meeting Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m.

The morning Bible study group will resume its Thursday meetings on January 4.

BAPTIST

Moraga Hills Community Baptist Church (located three-quarters of a mile north of Rheem Center on Moraga Road) starts Sunday with church school for all ages at 9:45 a.m.

At the 11 a.m. service Interim Pastor the Rev. Bill Rose will give his message, "Fruitfulness," from John :15. All are invited to stay after services for coffee and cookies.

BIBLE

This Sunday at the 11 a.m. service of the Suburban Bible Church the Reverend Gray Lambert will deliver the morning message.

Nursery facilities are available and the public is invited to all services of the church. Also at the 11 a.m. service special music will be provided and the youth of the church will assist as ushers at the service.

Sunday evening at 11:30 the church will observe their traditional New Year's Eve candlelight communion service. The service will be held in the Veteran's Building, 3499 Mt. Diablo Boulevard in Lafayette.

All Christians regardless of denominational background are invited to participate with the church in the observance of this service on Sunday evening.

Other activities of the church during the week include: Sunday school classes for all ages at 10 a.m. in the Veteran's Building. Guided youth activities for all ages during the week with youth basketball teams playing during the week.

Anyone desiring special prayer is invited to contact the church by phone at 284-4959.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Freedom from sin, sickness, and limitation is available all through the power of Spirit, God. This is the encouraging message to be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday.

Bible readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" will include (Matt. 9): "And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people."

A correlative passage will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Christian Science churches are located at 3422 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette; 22 Orinda Way, Orinda; 2 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek and at the corner of Grant and Park streets, Concord.

Obituaries

Alfred Phelps

Funeral services for Alfred C. Phelps, 71, of 2234 Stone Valley Road, Alamo, were held Saturday in the Telegraph Avenue Chapel of Grant Miller Mortuaries, Oakland.

Mr. Phelps, mechanical superintendent of the Oakland Tribune for more than 15 years, died December 20 of a heart attack. He had been a Tribune staff member for 50 years.

Born in Fresno, the son of a Presbyterian minister, he joined the Tribune as a stock clerk after graduating from Berkeley High School.

He was a member of Sequoia Masonic Lodge and the Oakland Scottish Rite bodies.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Evelyn Phelps; a son, Alfred Phelps; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Colwell of Lafayette; two stepsons, James Jotter of Lafayette and Herb Jotter of Napa, and four grandchildren.

Frank Straight

Funeral services for Frank Straight, 72, of 300 Walnut Avenue, Walnut Creek, were held Tuesday in Hull's Walnut Creek Chapel.

Mr. Straight died Saturday.

Born in California, he was a walnut orchardist until his retirement.

He was a member of Alamo Lodge 122, F&AM, Oakland Scottish Rite bodies, Aahmes Temple, Oakland; Almona Chapter 214, Order of Eastern Star, Contra Costa Shrine Club and the Odd Fellows Lodge 117 of Concord.

Survivors include his widow, Ellen; a daughter, Mrs. Clyde Kirlin, and a sister, Mrs. Albertine Lamb, all of Walnut Creek.

Leschine

Funeral services for Mrs. Jeanette G. Leschine, 56, of 41 Bonita Court, Walnut Creek, were held December 18 at Hull's Walnut Creek Chapel.

Mrs. Leschine died from injuries sustained in an auto crash on the Lafayette freeway, December 14.

Also killed was Dr. Nicholas Taliaferro. Mrs. Taliaferro was injured.

Mrs. Leschine was chief accountant for the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

She leaves a sister, Mrs. Frances Cable of Gallup, New Mexico.

Local Transit Decision Will Be Made Tuesday

A decision to approve or disapprove the proposed five-county rapid transit system will be made by Contra Costa County supervisors next Tuesday, although San Mateo County's disapproval has reduced chances of final passage.

The local supervisors on December 21 heard John M. Peirce, Bay Area Rapid Transit District manager, and Harry Morrison, a BARTD director.

Peirce said the district still hopes to place the rapid transit bond issue proposals on the June 5 ballot, but it may be necessary to delay it to the November elections.

HE NOTED that San Mateo County has rejected the plans, Alameda County has approved, San Francisco County has asked for changes, and Marin County's status depends on whether the Golden Gate Bridge can carry the transit trains. A study is being made on the bridge question.

If changes in the present plans result from the current developments, they will have to be submitted to all supervisors concerned, he said.

The present plans call for a $939,000,000 bond issue to finance rapid transit in five counties, or a lesser sum if Marin County is finally ruled out.

Peirce said a public opinion poll had been conducted for the district by Penfield and Associates, San Francisco marketing research firm.

PRELIMINARY results show that an "overwhelming majority" of those who have formed an opinion say they favor the transit system, but about 50 per cent of the population have not made up their minds.

When informed of the actual amount their taxes would be increased by construction of rapid transit, however, only 22 per cent stay undecided—while the remaining 78 per cent say they would vote for it by a two-to-one majority, said Peirce.

A cross-section of 1000 residents of Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco and San Mateo counties were interviewed by telephone on a random sample basis.

The assessed valuation of all property owned by each respondent was obtained beforehand from the official tax records in the county where his telephone was listed.

THE ADDITIONAL taxes on his property that would result from construction of the rapid transit system were then computed so that each respondent could be asked his views in terms of its specific additional cost in property taxes to him.

Non-property owners were also interviewed in their proper proportion, and these respondents were told that rapid transit would increase their county's property taxes by 7½ per cent.

Auditor To Seek Reelection

Howard E. McNamer, Contra Costa County auditor-controller, will seek re-election to a third four-year term in next June's primaries.

McNamer was appointed to the office in August, 1951, and was elected to the office in 1954 and 1958.

Born in Washington, Nevada County, and graduated from Sacramento schools, McNamer entered county service in 1925 as a chainman in the surveyor's office.

He became a timekeeping deputy in the auditor's office in 1934, chief accounting officer in 1936 and assistant county auditor in 1945.

During World War II, he served as a master sergeant in the U.S. Marines.

He is past president of the County Assessor's Association of California, and is the ninth county auditor in the county's 111-year history.

Rotary to Hear Doctor Speak on Project Hope

Dr. T. F. Lally, who spent several months aboard the S.S. Hope, will present a program to the Lafayette Rotary Club Thursday at noon.

Dr. Lally will show a sound color movie which has not yet been released for public viewing and will make personal comments of his own.

The Rotary will meet at noon at Gimbo's, according to Leo Schell, president.

A. J. Carr Dies of Gunshot Wounds

Alfred J. Carr, Sr., 69, Moraga rancher, died in Kaiser Hospital late Tuesday afternoon of self-inflicted gunshot wounds, according to a report from Contra Costa County sheriff's deputies.

The report stated that Carr, apparently despondent over failing health, had shot himself in the mouth with both barrels of a 410 gauge shotgun.

The incident occurred in a refrigerator room on the 564-acre Carr ranch near St. Mary's College in Moraga. The victim's son, Alfred J. Carr, Jr., found him at 3:45 p.m. and summoned both the Moraga Fire Department and a physician immediately.

Carr was rushed to Kaiser Hospital in Walnut Creek where he told deputies his heart trouble had caused him to attempt suicide.

Carr died at 5:42 p.m.

Funeral services will be held today at 11:30 a.m. in the Garden Chapel of Hull & Sons Mortuary, Walnut Creek, with Alamo Lodge 122 F. & A. M. officiating.

Interment will be in Alamo Cemetery.

Carr, a native Californian and a resident of Moraga for 40 years, is survived by his widow, Gertrude; his son, a daughter, Mrs. Mike Mazaika of Lafayette and seven grandchildren.

Lyman Assigned To Lowry AFB

Airman Basic Richard N. Lyman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lyman of 9 Scenic Court, Orinda, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for air armament and gunnery specialists at Lowry AFB, Colorado.

Nielsen Seeks Courts As Water Solution

Mel Nielsen, supervisor of Contra Costa County said today that proposed litigation concerning the state water plan is the only remaining protection for delta interests. Contra Costa has attempted for more than three years to negotiate with the state to reach a mutually satisfactory solution to the Delta problems. The state has shown no interest in protecting the Delta but only in using it as a transportation facility for water destined for Los Angeles.

In a letter to Donald K. Currlin, manager-counsel of the Santa Clara County Flood Control and Water Conservation District, the Contra Costa County Board of Supercisors emphasized that neither the legislature nor the Department of Water Resources has guaranteed any protection to the Delta.

THE BOARD directed that District Attorney John A. Nejedly advise Currlin that "We do not enter into litigation either lightly or in disregard of its effects on others. We consider litigation as the only remaining opportunity for secure protection to our essential water requirements which have so far been disregarded. Contra Costa County does not wish to put aside a plan for conservation of our water supplies but only seeks to insure that any plan put into effect consider the essential requirements of our area and other areas as well."

SANTA CLARA County had expressed concern that litigation might delay the construction of the South Bay Aqueduct from which Santa Clara County and Contra Costa County both expect to purchase water. Nielsen stated, however, that there are other funds available for the construction of the South Bay Aqueduct and suggested that Santa Clara and Contra Costa should get together to protect their common interest in assuring a high quality of water in the Delta both for local use and for export,, and to protect the interests of both counties.

How About Buying the Same Land Twice...?

How do you feel about bying the same piece of property twice?

Obviously, this is a ridiculous question, but you may find yourself doing just that.

The East Bay Municipal Utility District owns thousands of acres of land in Alameda and Contra Costa Counties—land which has been preserved as watershed land ever since its initial purchase.

Naturally, the value of the land has increased tremendously over the years as improvements are brought adjacent to it, and as the population increases.

CONSEQUENTLY, there is an effort being made to secure much of this EBMUD land for parks, so that it can be kept in its relatively unspoiled state.

And here is where the rub comes in. All of us, taxpayers, have paid for that land through our support, both through taxes and bond issues, of the utility district.

Now, if we want to make parks out of it, we find we must buy it from EBMUD . . . literally, we are paying ourselves for our own land, purchasing it a second time.

What brings this to the point right now is the fact that the county is planning to ask approval of a bond issue next year for the purchase of land for park sites . . . and much of this land is EBMUD land.

AND THIS BRINGS up the old problem of Briones Park and the land that the county has been purchasing there for years—and access to that land.

Considered in the park proposals are many acres of land around San Pablo Dam, as well as Briones Dam. But there are no suitable access roads to this land.

And, says the county, in an effort to keep the bond issue within bounds, the county will probably drop a proposed $410,000 for an access road to Briones Park.

We might question the value of park land without suitable access. Certainly Happy Valley Road isn't sufficient to carry traffic to and from a developed park.

FRANKLY, the whole Briones Park setup smacks of politics, and it is going to take a lot of explaining before it all makes sense.

Remember, that for years EBMUD flatly stated that its reservoirs could not be used for fishing or water sports—but they changed their minds when it came to Pardee Reservoir—they had to for political reasons.

So, EBMUD can go into the recreation business.

It has been recommended that the county obtain the right to use all of the EBMUD land in the county with the provision that when and if EBMUD ever needed any of the land for water purposes that the developments made by the county would be abandoned.

Thus it would seem logical to consider the money paid so far on Briones Park as payment to EBMUD for the right to use all existing EBMUD land for recreation purposes, and that the county would agree to pay the costs of improvements on the land.

WE DON'T know what the county's ultimate proposal will be, but it had better look good. Because in the light of the coming bond issue, people are going to be looking over any park proposals pretty critically.

We do not like to oppose bond issues, particularly when we know that there is going to be a tremendous and increasing need for parks and recreational facilities.

But, on the other hand, the county had better come up with a pretty good and pretty rational proposal, especially in the Briones area.

And Tell Your Kids!

A short time ago, just before Christmas, a woman was killed in a Lafayette crosswalk on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Last summer three children were hit by an automobile, also on Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

It wasn't too long ago that a pedestrian was seriously injured crossing a street in Walnut Creek.

And nobody has tabulated the near misses.

WHY DO THESE accidents happen? The answer, which seems almost too simple, is that somebody didn't look where they were going.

And it cost them serious injuries or their lives.

Moral for pedestrians: Don't close your eyes, even if you are in a crosswalk. Remember, one car may stop for you, but the driver in the next lane may not. Sure it's his fault, but you can't sue when you are six feet under.

Moral for drivers: Don't close your eyes. Visibility these days is poor. Daydreaming at the wheel, thinking of your family, your work, or your problems, can cost a pedestrian his life. And that won't help ease your mind.

CONGESTION is increasing all the time. This means that added alertness is necessary.

And one final word. Tell your children. Teach them to be supercautious. Adults should know better, but they get killed. Children must be taught that care and caution in the streets and crosswalks is simply a matter of survival.

It certainly isn't a game.

Can We Pay For It?

Rapid transit is becoming a problem.

Practically everybody, without exception, agrees that rapid transit is a necessity for our area. The only problems have been how to achieve it, and where the routing and stations should go.

The technical difficulties have been worked out, with one or two notable exceptions, but now another, and more major difficulty has reared its head.

WITH SAN MATEO County adamantly refusing to have anything to do with the proposed rapid transit system, and with Marin County still on the fence, depending on the outcome of a study of the Golden Gate Bridge, we find that our proposed rapid transit system has shrunk to include only three counties.

These are San Francisco, Alameda and Contra Costa. Of these three Contra Costa has not yet accepted the plan, but intends to make a decision January 2.

So, what was a feasible five-county plan now becomes a doubtful three-county plan. The major problem, of course, is financing. True, one of the major costs, the financing of the transbay tube, would be taken care of by bridge tolls.

BUT THERE IS still a tremendous job remaining, including the subway system in San Francisco and the tunnel through the Oakland-Berkeley hills to serve this county.

The rapid transit directors say it can be done, even on a three-county basis.

But certainly the entire problem should be reviewed by our board of supervisors in the light of this development.

Actually it affects everybody living in the three counties, because it would be paid for through taxes—your taxes and ours—and it could provide a terrific burden.

WE HAVE supported rapid transit in the past, and we are not saying now that it is not just as good an idea, and just as necessary as before. We still feel that it is essential.

But unfortunately, we now have to look at the whole package and see if we can afford it.

The board of supervisors will have to do this for us. And now is the time to look.

If You Want A Happy New Year Don't Drink and Drive!

It's a Fatal Combination

We Like It Here . . .
It's All Over Now But the Shouting!

By MARIE MONAHAN

IT TOOK so long to get here, the Holiday Season! Then suddenly it's all over, in a flurry of tissue wraps, cookie crumbs, unpaid bills & sheer exhaustion!

Now practically a page in the 1961 Memory Book: A baby's first tree, a boy's spill on a first two-wheeler, a girl's first kiss under the mistletoe, a first Christmas in a new home . . . A split headache in a split level.

AH, THE GOOD WILL & gifts that were spread around! Will you love them as much in January as you did in December when the bills come marching home?

THE PLASTIC TOYS are already broken & they're not even paid for yet. The toys aren't made like they used to be, you mutter to yourself, & nowadays you have to be a Genius to understand half the kids' games.

If you were wrestling around with diagrams & instructions at one ayem on Christmas morn, you were not alone. NEXT year you'll let the kids put it together. They know more about it than you do—or so you found out, too late!

THE TEN DOLLARS worth of gilt-edged temporary wrappings went in the fireplace smoke & next year you resolve to stick to plain old tissue which is more Christmasy anyhow than some of the prestige papers kicking around the counters.

CHRISTMAS is for the Children . . . That's what all the Grown-Ups keep telling each other as they totter & traipse from one hot toddy to another making the rounds of the holiday parties . . . It's as if they're convincing themselves that this is true, TRUE & most of them are wearing a "What are we doing here anyhow?" expression!

CHRISTMASTIME & the livin' isn't easy. You're full of fruitcake & eggnog, but short on your Three Square Meals a day & between the shopping, parties, visiting & myriad chores, it ain't easy! Next year you'll build a special vault for all the cakes & cookies Mama baked for weeks—the ones that didn't stretch very far because the kiddies knew where they were cashed away . . .

THE TREE, so graceful & lacey just yesterday it seems, is droopy & dry, but darned if you can think of taking it down. Don't worry! Some perfectly normal people will leave theirs up till February & if you do take the trimmings down, you'll do it little by little. The shock of a cold naked house suddenly stripped of its festive wardrobe is too much after the cozy look of Christmas.

YOU WRITE Thank-You's for the perfectly adorable marvelous thingamabobs & then with no conscience at all, you sneak to the store to exchange them. But you know better by now to return that Special Gift from that Special One . . . even if it is a new electric can-opener.

THE KIDS who couldn't WAIT for Christmas are now unwinding like mechanical toys, some of them behaving better now than before Christmas . . . Most of 'em are squabbling over who busted MY racing car or WHO ate all the candy canes & after sizing up the loot of their neighborhood pals, they are already casually tossing off things like "Guess what I want NEXT Christmas . . ." (Getouddahere!!!!)

SO HERE YOU ARE, collapsed on the couch & the Christmas kaleidoscope continues to flood your foggy groggy head. You suddenly know it was all worth it for after the hectic pace of four weeks, there WAS a Silent Night & all was well & all was wonderful . . .

Now if you can just muster enough energy to join me in a Happy New Year shout, fine! I'm retiring early, too!

Letters to The Editor

NATIVITY

Dear Editor:

With a city election coming up in a few months it was politically expedient for Mayor Sanders, with the assistance of Councilman Case, to find a safe but dramatic issue to illustrate his qualifications for the job.

It's too bad that the opportunity to develop such an issue was provided when Mr. Abramovitz tried to avoid the publicity of a lawsuit by approaching the city manager with a letter concerning the Christmas creche in front of the city hall.

It should have been realized from past experience with them that a couple of publicity-seeking politicians would grab the opportunity to call attention to themselves. They did just that, and demonstrated their devotion to principle with a courageous defense of the majority against the restrictions of the U.S. constitution.

Their spontaneous outburst, read from a prepared statement in response to a two-month-old letter, indicates an excellent sense of political timing. These tactics will probably be successful, but they are damaging to Walnut Creek. Mayor Sanders and Councilman Case should be reminded that it is their job to handle city affairs with prudence and dignity.

A display of arrogance and contempt for the opinions of others is a discredit to the community over which they preside.

NATIVITY SCENE

Dear Editor:

Recently it was my task to explain the Toleration Acts of the '60s to my young daughter and half an hour later to answer the incongruous question, "Why shouldn't anyone want to see the Nativity Scene in Walnut Creek?"

I'm sure we all know that the Constitution and subsequent laws were written to protect everyone, not to be used as a weapon.

It would seem that with all truly serious trouble and suffering in the world today, our efforts could be put to more profitable use than dissecting customs dear to the hearts of so many.

Peace on earth and good will toward men might start with just a little "toleration" by all.

MRS. JACK STALEY

McCUNN

Dear Editor:

The board of trustees of Contra Costa College District are to be commended for standing firmly behind Dr. Drummond McCunn.

He is an educator dedicated to the finest education for his students who has been opposed by a small but formidable group who see no harm in socialistic minds teaching in our schools.

Now if ever is the time for all of us to give support to Dr. McCunn, who has been quoted out of context and maligned by the press and by some of his faculty.

We could rest secure if there were more like him.

OFFICIAL CARS

Dear Editor:

Have you noticed the number of "For Official Use Only" government cars that are showing up in the Walnut Creek to tunnel stretch of Highway 24 during commuter hours?

I wonder how much of this is official business and how much is private use of government cars for commuting to and from work.

My taxes are high enough with unofficial use.

Under The Sun
Once Again a Political Shenanigan Is Used

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

There's an old trick in the great game of politics that is practiced in this area all too often. Here's a letter that will tell you about it:

DEAR EDITOR:

There is a rumor making the rounds of the Courthouse (to which many observers give credence because it so closely follows the classic pattern of political deal) that a high county official will resign after the first of the year, and the Board of Supervisors will appoint a successor. The appointee will then ride into office at the next election on the strength of the "incumbency," which is considerable. Various names are mentioned as possible appointees.

Appoint or elect?

If there is such a deal in the making, the people of Contra Costa County have a gripe coming. From following the letters-to-the-editor or talking to numerous individuals about local government, it is possible to draw the conclusion that a majority favor elective over appointive officials in critical positions.

The old trick of staging a resignation in order to fill an office with a selected successor by appointment and subsequent election on the strength of incumbency erodes away the power of choice by the electorate more insiduously but just as surely as does removal of an office from the elective to the appointive category.

If you are interested in this as editorial or column comment, this would be fine with me. If you treat it as a letter to the editor, please use the signature "Political Observer."

Prediction almost right

Well, this letter writer was right—except for the timing. The political maneuver happened last week, instead of "after the first of the year," as reported in The Sun Friday.

C. L. Dunklee resigned as county assessor. December 23 the County Board of Supervisors appointed E. F. (Fred) Wanaka to the job as "assessor." This was a split vote—with Supervisors Nielsen, Coll and Silva voting yes; Supervisors Linschied and Kenny voting no.

I know of nothing wrong with Wanaka, a resident of Walnut Creek, who has been in the assessor's office since 1946. He is probably a very capable man. But why all the shenanigans just six months before the June election? (For further information ask someone who is close to the Martinez scene about the situation in the assessor's office.)

More question marks

The second big question: Shouldn't the supervisors have appointed Wanaka "acting assessor" or some similar title? And what was the gigantic hurry about the appointment at all? (Supervisors Linscheid and Kenny both wanted a delay in the appointment.) Of course, Wanaka will run for reelection as the "incumbent."

Such political maneuvers are not the exclusive property of our county politicians. This has happened frequently in our own area. The Sun has pointed out similar deals on our district boards, particularly school boards. (Acalanes School Board has been the worst offender.)

A trustee will resign some months before the annual school board election. That board then appoints a replacement, who then runs as an incumbent and usually wins. This is often done rather hastily, not giving the community or interested applicants time to study the problem.

I hope you will join in opposing such manuevers in the future.

Letters to The Editor

LIBEL

Dear Editor:

I hope that some congressman, preferably John Baldwin, will sponsor a bill in the next session of Congress, making it libelous for a person to call another person a "communist" or a "red" or a "communist sympathizer."

In this emotion-packed day, with anonymous charges flying, I believe that charges should be substantial and proven. . . .

THOMAS KENDALL

PEACE

Dear Editor:

May I commend the women of Orinda for their November peace march.

It's this kind of action, straight from the ranks, that holds the only real hope for a peaceful solution to the ending of the arms race and eventual disarmament.

Let more of the people speak!

Some Resolutions for The New Year, Anyone?

By JEAN JERNIGAN

New Year's Eve . . . a time for gaiety, sharing fun with good friends, a wonderful night of the year that is also a time of remembering and a time of looking to the future.

Some, remembering Pearl Harbor, remembering world news right up to yesterday, will question the "future."

Others will remember more personal things, words that should not have been spoken to loved ones, actions that should not have been involved in a business office; "deals" that should not have been consummated in affairs of finance, business or profession.

None of us can undo what has been done, but we can profit from past errors. We can work for peace, rather than build a fallout shelter and crawl in it. We can think twice in our business or home life, before repeating mistakes of 1961.

New Year's eve, and a look to the future . . . what is the future? No one knows the answer. Some fear the future, some dread it, some ignore it. Only one thing is certain, the inevitable advance of time.

Tomorrow will soon be yesterday, so why worry about yesterday today?

Anyone for resolutions?

We don't make resolutions anymore, someone with a memory better than our will power always asks along about March, "I thought you were going to lose 10 pounds, or, didn't you say you were going to stop smoking?"

It's fun to make resolutions for other people though. Here's one for the manufacturers of toys, the kind, that is, that come packed neatly in a carton in a thousand and one pieces to be assembled according to the easy instructions.

Be it resolved that paragraph b of the instructions, which refers to section a, which refers to cable e of the stabilizer f as it is inserted in slot d, be eliminated completely and a larger carton manufactured to accommodate the toy after it has been assembled by the manufacturer.

Be it resolved that all budget committees become endowed with supernatural powers to increase salaries and at the same time lower taxes; be it further resolved that chairmen of all night meetings end said meetings no later than 10 p.m.

Be it resolved to give the CHP a break New Year's eve, to drive with care and not mix drinking and driving.

Be it resolved to meet the uncertain future with faith and courage, with the determination that nations can live together in peace.

Happy New Year!

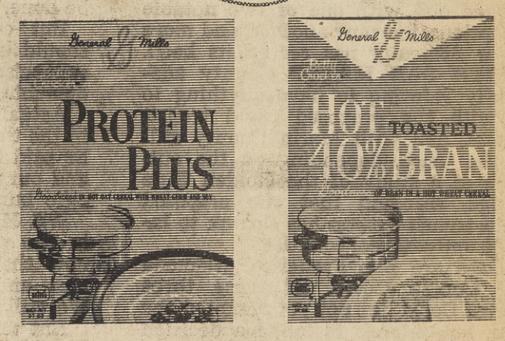
"Two easy ways to serve a good, hot breakfast that's nutritious and good to eat," says Betty Crocker®

It takes only 2-to-3 minutes to cook your family a stick-to-the-ribs breakfast with these hot cereals from General Mills. They offer other health benefits, too.



Protein Plus combines the full, rich goodness of two important grains—oats and wheat—to give you good taste and good nutrition. That includes plenty of protein—natural, full strength protein. Protein Plus actually contains as much protein as meat and milk. And the flavor is delightful.

Hot Toasted 40% Bran is the only cereal that provides all the natural benefits of bran, and at the same time gives you a nourishing hot breakfast. And the flavor is delicious—a "country kitchen" flavor like the robust stone-ground cereals of the old days.

Try one of these unique hot cereals for breakfast soon. Remember, as Betty Crocker says:

"You and your good, healthy family need a start you on breakfast to your way... And the healthier your breakfast, the happier your day."

Music, Merriment, Mulled Wine Make This Party

By HELEN SCHARMER

Warmth, music, good food and a cosmopolitan atmosphere — all were present in the Joseph Connery home on Stow Lane, Lafayette, just before Christmas as guests arrived for their annual caroling party.

Music has been an integral part of this Contra Costa family for years. As Mrs. Connery (Camille) says, "Music is the reason for our annual party, the holidays, our excuse."

Camille, in a lovely imported knit sweater and wearing her wonderful Czechoslovakian earrings, greeted her guests at the door while Joe played host, relaxing from his duties as statistical analyst for the county.

ONE OF THE DELIGHTFUL things about this musical get-together of old friends and neighbors is the "taken for granted" feeling.

Each year, since 1952, an invitation has come from the Connery home, warm and casual, and usually prefaced with a "you are coming, aren't you? And be sure to bring the children!"

Their first party, given by Camille and her friends in Hawaii while their husbands were on duty with the Navy, was such a success for children and adults alike, that it has been a "must" ever since.

The Connery kitchen is busy for two days before the occasion while the children prepare spiced Christmas cookies and Camille makes her delicious brioche, liptauer cheese cakes, pain d'epice (ginger bread) and lavish fruit cakes to serve for the carolers.

Served with these American and continental concoctions is mulled wine for the grown-ups and apple cider for the children.

SITUATED ON A KNOLL overlooking Sun Valley, their home boasts a huge deck that commands a marvelous view of Mt. Diablo and the surrounding hills. The house is set among plantings of native shrubs and trees from all over California. There are at least 18 species of pine trees alone.

It is the children's task to select boughs from these trees to decorate their spacious living quarters for Christmas.

Accompanying the singers was Camille at the piano and Bronwyn Taylor with her accordion. Bronwyn's parents are the Irving Taylors of Reliez Valley Road.

Philip Bancroft of Ygnacio Valley brought his lovely wife, Ruth. She wore a festive brocade sheath in pale grey-green. With hem was little nine-year-old Kathy Bancroft, noted for her rendition each year of "Tannenbaum" in both English and German.

Betty Reid (Mrs. Melvin of Walnut Creek) was there with her three youngest. Four-year-old Dory was winsome in her bright red jumper, Bobby and David Reid were resplendent in their red vests and their mother beautiful in lavendtr wool.

Peggy Lee, who entered wearing a beige fur-trimmed cashmere coat, entertained guests with her stories of their burro who visits their Tice Valley neighbors at all hours.

Last summer her linguistic accomplishments led her to the teaching of French in the Lafayette schools, and this winter, she is teaching privately. She is a member of the French Alliance, a group that has semi-weekly luncheons at which only French is spoken and only French dishes are served.

Joseph Connery, after retiring in 1954 from his Navy job as Chief Quartermaster in the Submarine Force, did four years' work at the University of California and had his B.A. degree in two years and nine months. After attending graduate school he entered the administrative field in our county's government.

Camille says that during this time she had plenty of experience concocting delicious, economical dishes with Adele Davis' books on nutrition to guide her.

SONGS SUNG by the young guests and their parents ranged from the difficult but beautiful "Coventry Carol" to the familiar and traditional.

Adding to the decorations were the enormous cones of the digger pine, holly branches and pyracantha berries placed beneath huge candelabra gleaming with light.

Focal point of the living room is the Steinway grand piano, inherited from Mrs. Connery's grandfather, and a veteran traveler from New York to Hawaii to California.

Mrs. Connery is the daughter of the late William L'Engle, a painter whose oils are hung in the Metropolitan Museum of Art. A collection of his paintings will be brought from New York City this spring by his widow, Mrs. Lucy L'Engle, and will be shown at the Quay Galleries in Tiburon.

Educated in finishing and music schools in New York and Paris, Camille was presented to society in New York City. She received her musical education (she is an accomplished pianist) at Juilliard School, New York City and at Dalcroze School in Paris.

As we left and the many other guests of the party, young Mark Connery very politely guided us out of our parking space, and the rest of the family stood at the door waving goodbye and saying, "Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year," and — "See you next year."

Pink and Gold To Be Colors At Diablo

Mr. and Mrs. James Bos of Alamo are chairmen of the Diablo Country Club's annual New Years Eve formal dinner dance and party, beginning with a cocktail hour before the dinner at 9 p.m.

Color theme will be pink and gold. Dancing will be to Henry Gallagher's orchestra.

Committee members are Messrs. and Mesdames Robert Lehman, Lawrence Moore, Gus Maehle, Carl Noecker and Alfred Graham.

Stephens Students Visit Families

A coterie of Lafayette students at Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, are spending the Christmas holidays at home with their families.

They include Miss Gretchen Blumberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Blumberg of 1674 Foothill Park Circle; Miss Sally Browning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morris Browning of 1069 Rahara Drive; Miss Mary Josephine Dunn, daughter of Mrs. H. P. Dietz of 1021 Timothy Lane, and Susan St. John Pellegrin, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Pellegrin of 3124 Teigland Road.

Debs Bow at Winter Ball

By MARIE MONAHAN

The Accent was on Youth at last Friday's Winter Ball at the Claremont Hotel.

Contemporaries of the young women making their formal bow to society seemed to surge through the gala throng and appeared to outnumber the senior members of the bay area society set at the Children's Hospital benefit bash hostessed by members of the Hill Branch for the fourth traditional year.

IT WAS AN evening glittering with young people as well as Yuletide decor and the 20 pretty debutantes, like Christmas ornaments in billowy white, floated down the long red carpet to a royal reception given them by the ranks of society in the hotel's Garden Room.

THE DEBS (some poised, some flushed and excited, some obviously nervous) walked the long aisle to the end of the room with their fathers while relatives, doting mothers and grand dames of society took it all in from the sidelines with oh's, ah's and remarks like "My, she WILL be a beauty!" or "I can remember when she was born . . ."

Each deb and her gallant father then proceeded down the length of the room to either end to stand and await the first dance — with fathers, after which Dads were left holding their darling's bouquets, while the escort entourage took over for the second whirl to Ray Hackett's dance music.

A PRETTY GIRL is like a melody . . . Through all these ceremonial proceedings, an overflow crowd, some standing on chairs, gave their nod of approval to the cotillion members and the elegant ball gowns in bouffant white were under as much careful scrutiny as the season's First Young Ladies.

FIRST debutante presented was Suzette Abbot, daughter of the junior Samuel Abbots of Diablo whose white silk peau de soie off-shoulder gown featured a lace bodice, a double butterfly bow . . . Standing tall on the sidelines during the presentation was her escort, Hugh Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Gordon of Diablo.

Sally Holabird, daughter of the Evans R. (Ben) Holabirds of Orinda, was presented in a white silk organza embroidered with a profusion of large white roses and small daisies . . . Her parents, Ben and Peggy, took a suite in the hotel where they entertained friends before and after the presentation.

Among the Holabird's guests were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Lundblad of Sleepy Hollow whose son Kurt, home from his studies at the University of Colorado, served as Sally's swain for the evening . . . The Fred Bordens, George Hauerkens, Joe Langs, Ritchie Smiths and the Paul Demeters were more of those dropping in to bestow felicitations on the bud and her parents . . . Peggy Holabird matching bag and shoes to her sky blue short evening frock.

A POISED and polished pair was bud Barbara Sawyer and her father Edward P. Sawyer o Happy Valley.

It was the second time around the Winter Ball circles for Sawyer whose daughter Carol made her official curtsy in 1958. Barbara's princess model gown of lace medallioned with roses, featured a pleated obi sash of Thai silk. A ball veteran too, was Barbara's escort Jonathan Jensen, Yale man and son of the Stephen Jensens of Orinda, whose sister made her debut a few years back.

CHERIE SHARP, who was honored at a reception Saturday at Orinda Country Club by her parents, the James Sharps of Orinda, wore a strapless tiered Chantilly lace gown, a wide sash of satin extending down the back of the skirt. Her escort was John Russell Hill of Cltveland, Ohio.

It was a double blow-out for vivacious Ellie Sharp who forgot her own birthday in the excitement of launching her daughter, but someone saw to it that her petit-fours dessert was sparkler-topped at the dinner party given by Dr. and Mrs. Sttphen Jensen on the hotel's mezzaine.

Ellie, whose olive green chiffon frock with floating cowl shoulder panels matched her bag and slippers, couldn't take a step in the Garden Room without a hug, a kiss or a hearty gretting extended from one of her many friends.

FANCY FOOTWORK and the popular Twist were going strong in the Horizon Room where former debs Sylvia Bolman and Debra Smith and Jan Miller who was with Don White, were among the young set dancing to tht Dixieland Band of Jack Seltenrich.

Supper was served in both the Gold and Empire Rooms 'til 2 a.m. where individual tables were decorated with evergreen wreaths studded with bright Christmas balls and red candles . . . Dramatic garlands of white magnolia blooms, green leaves and tall white tapers graced the Grecian Room where the debutantes dined early with their parents.

Here Are Movie Reviews For Your Family's Use

Once again, as a public service, The Sun presents the following movie recommendations for your family's viewing guidance. Abbreviations mean: A, adults; MY, mature young people; Y, young people; F, family, and C, children unaccompanied by adults.

The ratings are provided by the Film Estimate Board of National Organizations.

BLOOD AND ROSES—A-MY

Past and present are interwoven in this bizarre tale of the reincarnation of a vampire, a noted 18th century Italian beauty.

THE DEADLY COMPANIONS—A-MY

A Yankee veteran of the Civil war, seeking a bounty-hunting Rebel deserter who tried to scalp him, comes upon his enemy and another outlaw in a little frontier town.

THE DEVIL AT FOUR O'CLOCK—A-MY

An offbeat drama has a tiny South Pacific island for its setting. Four passengers arrive on an incoming plane—a young French priest assigned to the local parish, and three convicts for whom this is merely a stop on the way to a Tahitian prison.

THE GREAT WAR—A-MY

Reminiscent in style of the classic films of World War I, this Italian production offers a realistic view of the conflict on the Austrian-Italian front in the closing days of that period.

THE HUSTLER—A

Robert Rossen presents a tense picture of the fight of a poolroom shark to get to the top, and what happens to him and those around him in the process.

MAN-TRAP—A

In a lurid melodrama a Korean War hero, unhappily married to his employer's daughter, is invited by a former war buddy to join in a wild scheme that will bring them a fortune.

MR. SARDONICUS—A

William Castle has produced another deliberately shocking horror tale, set in a dark castle in Central Europe in the late 19th century.

MYSTERIOUS ISLAND—F

Freely adapted from Jules Verne's story of the same name, this brightly colored science-faction tale tells a fantastic and entertaining story.

THE PURPLE HILLS—A-MY-Y

An $8000 reward for the capture of a badman who has been selling liquor to the Indians puts a number of people on his trail.

SECRET OF DEEP HARBOR—A

"I Cover the Waterfront," by Max Miller, furnishes the plot for this cops-and-robbers film.

THE SERGEANT WAS A LADY—A-MY

Through a machine-made classification error a missile technician is assigned to a tiny island in the Pacific where a detachment of WACs is installed.

THREE ON A SPREE—A-MY-Y

The British adaptation of "Brewster's Millions" resolves into the problem of spending a million pounds in 60 days.

VALLEY OF THE DRAGONS—A-MY-Y

There's a menace per minute in this science-fiction thriller based on Jules Verne's concept of a comet that periodically carries away a section of this planet.

Danville Cage League Opens Season Tuesday

Danville Basketball League starts its fourth season Tuesday with seven teams competing for top honors, Bert Frazier, commissioner, announced this week.

All games will be played in the San Ramon High School gymnasium.

All single and double-header games will start at 7:30 p.m.

Aerojet, always a strong contender for top honors, will inaugurate the season Tuesday against the Vern S. Ryan aggregation. The Ryan team represented the Frontier Barbershop last season.

Carter Glass, winner of the league title last year, will play the first game of a double-header the following night.

They meet Martinez Club, a newcomer this year.

The second game of the Wednesday night double-header will see Danville Cement, with all new personnel, meeting Diamond Building Materials, starting at approximately 8:45.

Shoe Stable, the seventh member of the league, will play their first game on January 11 against Vern S. Ryan.

Shoe Stable won the championship playoffs last year.

After the regular season the four top teams engage in a championship contest.

The same procedure will be followed this year, Frazier said.

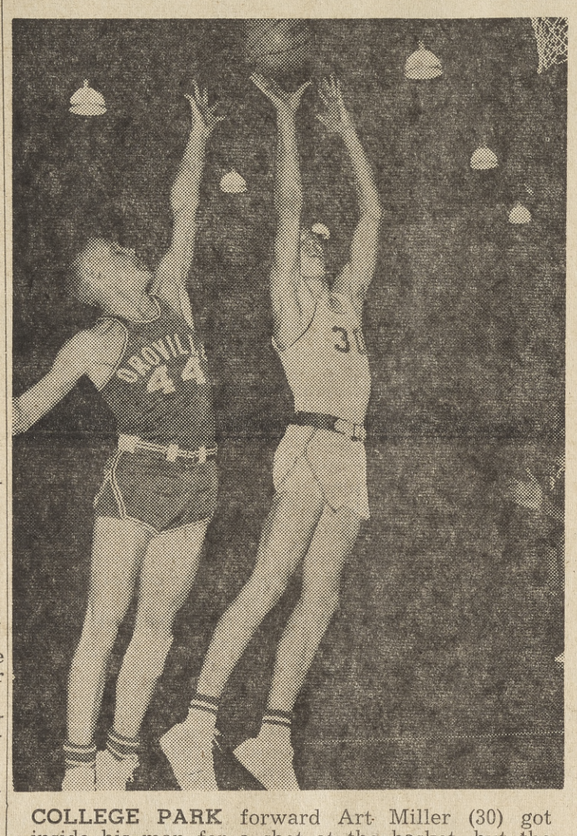
FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1961



COLLEGE PARK forward Art Miller (30) got inside his man for a shot at the basket, but the effort went for naught as the ball bounced off the rim. Attempting to block the shot is forward Doug Sears (44) of Oroville. The action took place in the first quarter. The game was played at College Park and the Falcons won it, 41-34. It was the second half of a holiday doubleheader which College Park and Clayton Valley hosted two weeks ago. Sun photo by Bob Rush.

DVC Home vs. San Mateo

Diablo Valley College plays its next-to-last non-league game of the season tonight on the Pleasant Hill campus.

The Vikings entertain College of San Mateo at 8 p.m. before kicking off Coast Conference action Tuesday at Mountain View against Foothill College.

The local quintet has a score to settle with Mountain View in the game Tuesday. On the same court a week ago, Mountain View blasted DVC out of the running in the annual Coast Conference Tournament with a convincing 73-62 victory.

After opening with five straight wins, the Vikings looked like a top contender in the Coast Conference. If they can get by Mountain View tonight, they'll prove their mettle.

Friday, the Vikings travel to Watsonville to meet Cabrillo College in another league contest. These two teams also faced one another in the conference tourney with DVC the victor, 50-41.

Coast Conference teams play a 14-game schedule.

Monterey is the defending champion. DVC finished fifth last year with a 8-6 mark. Monterey was 11-3.

Cecil Adams In Central Germany

Army Specialist Four Cecil R. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adams, 2023 Newell Avenut, Walnut Creek, recently participated with other members of the Eighth Infantry Division and supporting units in Exercise Main Barge, a V Corps field training exercise in central Germany.

The 21-year-old soldier is a 1958 graduate of Las Lomas High School.

The Ski Line . . .

The Snow Situation Is Similar to Last Season

By HEC HANCOCK

The winter ski land of the Sierra Loop is gaily festooned this week with throngs of happy skiers, eagerly anticipating the New Year's celebration.

Not since the epic event of the Winter Olympics have so many med-week boomers populated the winter resort areas. Literally thousands have taken to the boards and will schuss right into 1962.

All resorts at the higher elevations report fair to good snow conditions. Blessed with an early snow fall and continuing low temperatures, the snow pack thus far has proved to be adequate, if not overly ample.

However, underlying the festive atmosphere is the gnawing anxiety that at least a couple of good storms are needed.

While it hasn't been mentioned too often, the year, this far, has exactly the same characteristics of last year's lean snow pack.

If you'll recall, things last year also got off to a roaring start. The skiing by Thanksgiving was as fine as any we had the entire season. The Big Drought moved in around December 1 and the pack dwindled to a thin veneer before more was forthcoming about February 1.

While this is traditionally the time for predictions, my crystal ball is presently non-operative.

Oldtimers point up the fact that there have never been four consecutive years, and I'll have to go along with that until proven otherwise.

One and all agree that we are due, but only grizzled oldtimers such as myself can remember when the snow fell in such quanity that it was a real nusiance.

That would be the winter of 1951-52, when the pack reached record-breaking proportions and for a time closed off the entire mountain area.

That was the year the Southern Pacific City of San Francisco was hung up in the drifts at Yuba Gap for nearly a week.

Feast or famine!

While the major resorts are in full swing, it is those at the lower elevations that continue to feel the brunt of the snow rationing. A good case in point are Milt and Maggie Avila at Rainbow Tavern just below Soda Springs on Highway 40.

After having installed a poma lift a few years back, operations have been severely hampered by the light snowfalls. Last year they didn't have sufficient snow to operate until the last week of the season.

Both the Avila's and skiers deserve a better break, as this is a real fun hill. The slopes are ideal for families and the young teen groups.

A beautiful mountain home, situated among the rocks on the banks of the Yuba River, it has been converted by the Avila's to accommodate nearly 30 skiers. Maggie's home-cooked food leaves little to be desired, and is served informally, family style, in a warm, friendly atmosphere. With reasonable rates, this is hard to beat.

The rains of last week washed out the snow pack on the lower slopes, and postponed Alpine Meadows opening until the next big snow comes in. Tim Sullivan has been appointed manager, and his particular brand of Irish charm will make a pleasant addition to the scene.

For those able to navigate on New Year's Day, Dodge Ridge will hold their annual Hangover Obstacle Race, January 1. Open to all skiers, the race is a test of a skier's ability to overcome obstacles with and without skis. On New Year's Day?

That wraps up 1961.

Keep your fingers crossed and keep beating the snow drums. May 1962 be a healthy, happy New Year!

St. Mary's Bows To McGill and Co. By 83-66 Score

St. Mary's College gave strong Utah a run for its money last Saturday night in Salt Lake City, but fell to a second half rally by the Utes, 83-66.

It was St. Mary's fourth loss in seven games. For Utah it was win number eight as against a lone defeat.

It was the 27th home court triumph in a row for Utah.

All-American Bill (The Hill) McGill paced both teams in the scoring department with 32 points.

ST. MARY'S Steve Gray continued his fine scoring as he notched 25 points. The 6-4 junior forward has now scored 168 points in seven games for a 24-point average.

The Gaels slowed the fast-breaking Redskins to a walk in the first half and managed to stay abreast of the heavily-favored home quintet.

The Moraga crew even led on several occasions in the first half, the biggest margin being four points.

However, the Utes tied the score at 35-35 late in the half and spurted to a 43-37 lead at halftime.

McGILL was kept outside in the first half by a sagging St. Mary's defense that surrounded him with three men at times.

It was a different story in the second half, however, as he paced the Utah scoring spree that netttd eight straight points in the opening minutes of the second and gave the home team a comfortable, 51-37, lead with 15 minutes to play.

The Redskins poured it on from there and when McGill went to the bench with five minutes to play, it was 74-54.

Center Hamilton Holmes finished with 14 points while forward Kit Ruona had 12 for St. Marys.

THE FOOTHILL LEAGUE members get down to serious business Tuesday as six teams open conference play. Action like that shown in the picture above will be commonplace with the league expanded to include Del Valle this season. Acalanes, with the best record among local teams in non-league play, sits out the first conference date, but has a big game with Piedmont on its home court next Friday night. The Clan is one of the pre-season favorites in the FAL race. John Paul Jones (11), outstanding Acalanes guard, is shown in the above picture blocking a shot by an A. A. Stagg player in a recent game. Foothill League Starts 1962 Season Tuesday

Come Tuesday, Foothill League basketball coaches will no longer be able to take defeats in the optimistic manner prevalent during the non-league season just concluded.

Six FAL teams kick off the 1962 league season Tuesday afternoon.

Local teams, Miramonte, Del Valle, San Ramon and Las Lomas play Tuesday.

Acalanes has a bye.

On local courts, Del Valle hosts Miramonte and Las Lomas entertains Alhambra.

BOTH GAMES get under way at 3:30 p.m.

In the other FAL game featuring a local team, San Ramon travels to Piedmont to battle the Clan.

Pleasant Hill and College Park, the two local teams who participate in the Contra Costa division, do not open league play until a week from Tuesday.

The Falcons play their final non-league foe Wednesday when they face Castro Valley in that city.

Pleasant Hill is off until Friday when they host Miramonte in an 8 p.m. game.

FOR Del Valle, it will be the school's first varsity basketball contest in the Foothill League.

Handicapped by the absence of a senior class, Del Valle isn't expected to be a title threat this season. However, the 12 games they play in the FAL this season could be the experience necessary to provide the Trojans with a banner year in 1963.

Lacking height and scoring punch, the Trojans haven't shown too much in four non-league games.

Their record is 1-3.

Their only win came over Terra Linda of San Rafael, a school in exactly the same position as Del Valle—without a senior class.

Del Valle's fot, Miramonte, could be a real surprise team this winter.

The Matadors, hit hard by graduation, were forced to rebuild and Coach Herb Graw seems to have made giant strides in just five games.

After losing three straight games by a total of eight points, the Mats rebounded for two straight wins.

MIRAMONTE lost one game when the final buzzer nullified a last-gasp basket; another in overtime and the third in the last minute.

The big reason Miramonte is rebuilding is because 6-6 center Jack Gilbert, the Foothill League's leading scorer, is gone.

However, Graw has taken his three lettermen, added the three top Bee players of a year ago and molded them into a well-knit unit.

They haven't scored too many points this season, but they haven't allowed too many, either.

Look for the Matadors to be real troublesome.

HOWEVER, they'll have to really struggle to equal last season's second-place finish.

Defending FAL champion, Las Lomas, should make a successful league debut Tuesday comparative scores are any indication.

The Knights host the Bulldogs from Alhambra High in Martinez — common opponent: College Park.

Scores: Las Lomas 60, College Park 35; College Park 40, Alhambra 35.

The Knights opened their season with the impressive win over the Falcons, but then lost two in a row. The second was especially disappointing.

The Knights had the distinction of losing to Amador (33-31), a team that had lost six straight (including one to College Park) in a most convincing manner.

However, the Knights rebounded for two wins and a third-place finish in the annual Anderson tournament. Their only loss was to undefeated Orland, eventual tourney champ.

Rookie coach Ed Strelow has Bob Nichols and Greg Bertagnolli, a pair of talented senior lettermen, and as they go so goes Las Lomas.

The Knights could beat any Foothill League team in any given game.

However, whether they'll be able to come up with good performances consistently is the question on the eve of the 1962 league season.

Alhambra isn't expected to be any house of fire this season, although the team boasts a top performer in Jim Hammett.

SAN RAMON has had its problems so far this season and opening against Piedmont doesn't help matters.

According to local coaches, the Highlanders are the team to beat in the FAL.

With regulars Bob Metez and Don Rice out of the lineup for the past three games, the Wolves have been torn apart by Pittsburg, St. Elizabeth's and Livermore—in that order. San Ramon is 2-4 over all.

Luckily for coach Lary DeRushia, the Christmas holidays have given San Ramon time to heal and regroup for the league season.

Avoid Do-It-Yourself Medicine, Says Group

The American Heart Association today urged adoption of the following New Year's resolution:

"Resolved, that in 1962, I will avoid the 'do-it-yourself practice of medicine,' and will accept medical advice only from my physician—especially if worried about real or imaginary symptoms of heart and circulatory diseases."

THE association pointed out that only a physician is qualified to diagnose and treat illness in any form. As a precautionary measure, the association added, people who are middle-aged and beyond should undergo an annual health and heart examination, "which is simple, easy and painless, and which consumes very little time."

The association stated:

"The examining physician may say you appear to be in excellent health. In this case, you can start the year without major health worries.

"In other circumstances, you must remember that today—more than ever before—your physician is in a position not only to treat any heart condition which might be disclosed by an examination, but also to recommend positive steps which may guard your heart and prolong your life.

"FOR EXAMPLE, if a physical examination discloses an elevated blood pressure, your doctor, in most instances, can bring this condition under control through prescribed drugs or other methods.

"Your doctor may in some cases recommend that you reduce your weight and advise you on how to do it. Or he may propose a program of regular and moderate exercise.

"All such matters are properly determined only by a physician," the heart association said.

"For informations about the heart and its diseases, ask your local Heart Association. But for medical advice, see your doctor." The Contra Costa County Heart Association is located at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, and 6806 Cutting Boulevard, El Cerrito.

Police Incidents Show Decrease In November

Sheriff Walter F. Young's department has announced that during the month of November, a dip in the number of police incidents handled by the Sheriff's Patrol Division occurred.

The details handled numbered 1996 a decrease of 397 details over the previous month. This reverse of a trend which had continued to spiral upward for the entire year is very welcome in the face of nationwide and statewide reports of continued criminal occurrences in all other localities.

Christmas Seal Sale Down--- 'Disappointing'

Gordon P. Van Nuys, M. D., chairman of the Christmas Seal Campaign for the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Contra Costa reported that so far this year only $41,538 had been collected while last year at a comparable date $42,796 had been received as contributions.

"This is very disappointing," Van Nuys stated. "We have planned a very ambitious community wide program for the coming year and we hope the citizens of our county will respond as generously this year as they have in the past."

Specific program plans include continuing assistance to TB patients, funds to join with other counties in the state on an all-out attack against TB with the hopes of bringing it under control by 1970. Also, increased funds are needed for fact-finding in this county to determine the places where TB control should be increased, he explained.

There were a total of 113 new cases of TB found in Contra Costa County last year, the same number were found the year before.

Social Work Jobs Are Open In County

Contra Costa County has openings for social workers ($458-$556) and social work supervisors grade I ($584-710).

Persons selected for these positions will have the opportunity to apply their professional backgrounds in a professional capacity.

Social workers must have completed one year of graduate study in an accredited school of social work, or have a degree and one year of experience in social case work or probation work within the past 10 years.

Social work supervisors grade I must have a degree and two years of graduate study in a recognized school of social work and two years of paid casework experience in an agency in any of the following fields: public welfare, private family or child care, medical care, or probation work within the past five years.

One additional year of qualifying experience may be substituted for one year of graduate study.

Applications must be submitted by January 19.

Aircraft Facilities Will Be Erected at Buchanan

Aircraft repair and sales facilities costing $150,000 will be erected at Buchanan Field under a lease agreement signed between the Patterson Aircraft Company and the county.

"This agreement marks another major forward move towark making Buchanan Field a first-class executive airport," said County Supervisor Mel Nielsen, chairman of the board's airport advisory committee.

Nielsen said that the Patterson Aircraft Company will erect an operations building with at least 12,000 square feet of floor space adjacent to the present airport administration building.

FEDERAL Aviation Agency approved aircraft, engine, and radio repair services will be provided along with enclosed showroom space for the sale of new and used aircraft.

The lease agreement is nonexclusive and that similar arrangements can be made on five other one-acre plots.

The county is open to competitive proposals for these five areas, and other fixed base operators can bid on them on the same minimum terms as have been granted to the Patterson Aircraft Company.

The lease agreement was approved by the Board of Supervisors after a competitive bidding process upon the recommendation of the board's airport advisory committee, consisting of Supervisors Nielsen and Tom Coll, and the recommendation of a special committee consisting of the county administrator, the public works director, the district attorney, and auditor-controller, the county right of way agent and the airport manager.

THE AGREEMENT has a 30-year term with two options to renew at 10-year intervals. At the end of the lease, the permanent facilities revert to county ownership.

The Patterson Aircraft Company also will pay a fee of 3 to 3½ cents a gallon on all gasoline it sells, 5 cents a gallon on all oil sold, and 1 per cent of its gross receipts on its services.

On its lease automobile concession, the aircraft company will pay 10 per cent of its gross receipts to the county. The fuel and leased automobile services will be available a minimum of 16 hours a day.

Under the agreement, also, the county will extend sanitary, water and other utility lines to the leased property.

Book Display Is Scheduled

New books by the hundreds for children of all ages, from kindergarten through junior high school, will be displayed in January at six widely dispersed locations in Contra Costa County.

Sponsored by Contra Costa exhibit will consist of 750 books produced by 35 publishers.

Books on exhibit will be displayed locally at Glorietta School, Orinda, January 18-19; and Vista Grande School, Danville, January 22-23.

Library Consultant Walter Harris described the collection as including picture books, reading and literature, social science, science, mathematics, foreign language and, at the junior high level, books on the arts.

Citizenship Status Won

Nine area residents recently received citizenship papers during naturalization session at the Contra Costa County Superior Court.

They are as follows:

William Benson Parker of Orinda; Mary Gardner and Scott Caburi of Moraga; Anna Marie Freemyer of Canyon:

Sophia Strube of Danville; Margarita and Svetozar Sinkevich, and Phoebe Louisa Bass of Walnut Creek; Lorraine Margaret Schaefer of Pleasant Hill.

Gay Parties, Ski Trips Pack Vacation With Fun

By KITTY LINCOLN AND KITTY MIKA

The Matador holiday season has been filled with lots of ski trips and Christmas parties. The first ski trip during vacation was made by the Junior and Sophomore Teen Clubs to Donner Ski Ranch. A blizzard slowed down the aces a bit the first day, and rain brought most to a dead standstill the second day.

Other Miramonteans vacationing on the ski slopes were Carolyn Coburn, Nancy Englehard, Hester Harris, Mary Baker at Squaw Valley; Dennis Finn and Jerry Koch at Donner Summit; Sharon Nielson and Pat Kelly at Heavenly Valley; Tara Doty and Marc Jacobs at Sugar Bowl.

Also at Squaw Valley were Carol Goldsmith and Pete Read, John Lackey, Kent Miller and Mike La Plant. By the way, Santa Claus had a hard time getting John Lackey's '60 white MG down the chimney Christmas Eve. Kay and Steve Williams also skied at Heavenly.

family plus Barbie Brush and Dwight Thompson.

CLEAR LAKE is this year's vacation spot for the DeWitt

Last Friday night Judy Hopkins was hostess for many Miramonte seniors at a dressy Christmas party. Some of those attending were Robin Alvarez and Suzanne Portello, Mike McGuire and Carolyn Coburn, Melinda Love and Tom Gunn's brother, Tom Gunn and Sharlene Mossotto, Katrina Holland and Mike Saputo, Hester Harris and Paul McChesney, Ted Brock and Marc Jacobs, and Mike Rolley was with Judy.

What ever happened to the Hopkins' roast beef on account of Marc being hungry? A new dance, Limbo, was quite popular at the party although it's a pretty tricky step to master.

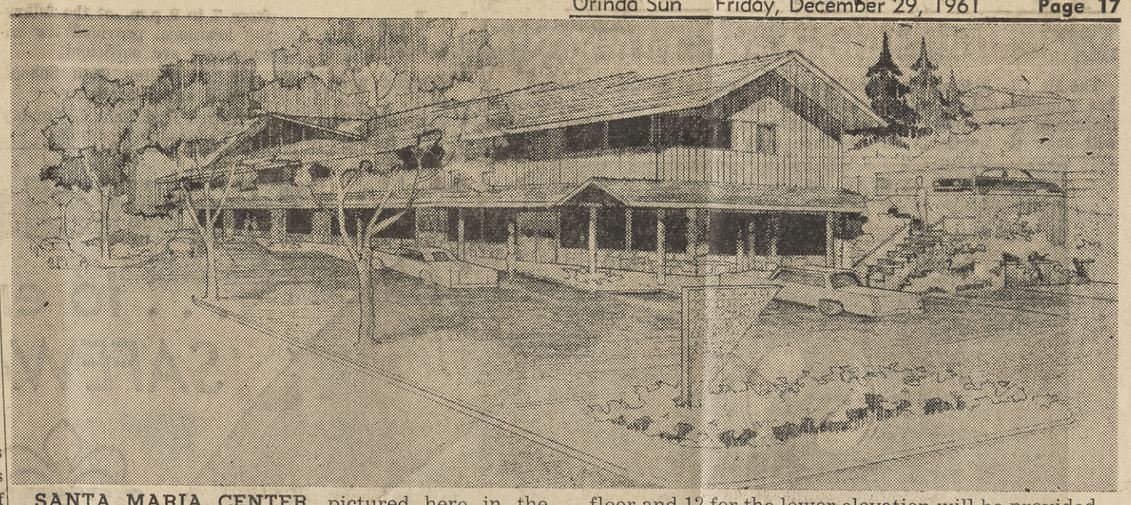
BEST WISHES FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Private Blount Finishes Training

Women Marine Private Anne P. Blount, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan P. Blount of 56 La Cresta Road, completed nine weeks of recruit training December 7, at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island South Carolina.

The only training center for Woman Marines, the base offers instruction in drill, Marine Corps history, the Uniform Code of Military Justice, social and personal standards, interior guard, typing, business English, spelling, filing, correspondence and other basic subjects.



SANTA MARIA CENTER, pictured here in the architect's drawing, will encompass 7200 square feet. The upper floor will be occupied by three doctors and a real estate developer. The lower level will contain a deluxe real estate office. Off street parking to accommodate 20 cars for the upper floor and 12 for the lower elevation will be provided. Ground was broken last week on the property at Altarinda and Orinda Way. The building will have a contemporary tile roof, with rock and redwood exterior. It is already completely leased.

School District To Offer Survival Classes in Jan.

The Mt. Diablo Evening School has announced that courses in individual and family survival will soon be available to citizens of the central Contra Costa County area.

These courses will be offered throughout the Mt. Diablo Unified School District upon sufficient demand.

Starting the week of January 2, 1962, classes will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. at the following locations, provided the enrollments are sufficient:

Clayton Valley High School, Monday and Wednesday.

Pacifica High School, Monday and Wednesday (room 502).

Pleasant Hill High School, Monday and Wednesday (room 407).

College Park High School, Tuesday and Thursday (room A4).

Mt. Diablo High School, Tuesday and Thursday (room 2, comm.).

Ygnacio Valley Elementary, Tuesday and Thursday (multi-use room).

These three-week courses will be conducted by fully qualified teachers who will present 12 hours of instruction using the latest information on the need for individual and family survival, the hazards of thermo-nuclear warfare, biological and chemical warfare and individual and family planning and survival techniques.

This program is sponsored by the California State Department of Education in cooperation with the U.S. Office of Education.

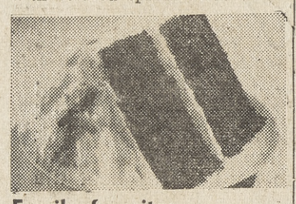
DESSERTS OF THE WEEK FROM Betty Crocker

Planning a New Year's Party? We've a recipe that bakes up into one of the prettiest party cakes we've ever seen. It's Confetti Carnival Cake . . . made with our easy-mixing Marble Cake Mix. Serve it at the stroke of twelve — and let us join in your wishes for a very happy new year.

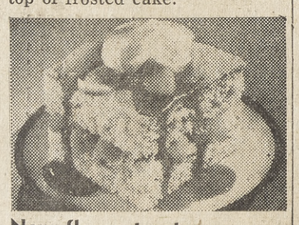
Cake-of-the-week: CONFETTI CARNIVAL CAKE

Make Betty Crocker Marble Cake Mix batter as directed. Blend marbling mixture into 1½ cups batter. Divide rest of batter into thirds. To ⅓ add a few drops red food coloring and ¼ tsp. peppermint flavoring. To another ⅓ add a few drops green food coloring. Leave remaining batter plain. Spoon batter into prepared layer pans. Marble. Bake and cool. Fill and frost with Betty Crocker Creamy White Frosting Mix. Decorate with colored sprinkles.



Family favorite: SEVILLE CHOCOLATE CAKE

Grate rind of 2 oranges; save 1 tbsp. for frosting; use rest in Betty Crocker Milk Chocolate Cake Mix batter. Bake cake in layers. Fill and frost with Betty Crocker Fluffy White Frosting Mix. Mix remaining 1 tbsp. orange rind with 2 tbsp. grated chocolate and make a ring on top of frosted cake.



New flavor treat: PEACH-COCONUT SHORTCAKE

Bake Betty Crocker Toasted Coconut Cake Mix in oblong pan, 13x9½x2". Cut cake into squares. Split; place fresh or frozen peaches between layers and over top. Top with sweetened whipped cream and serve with warm caramel sauce, if desired.

And here's a New Year's special for you! We'd like to send you a free gift of a beautiful Twin Star Dessert Fork . . . made of lifetime solid stainless by Oneida Community craftsmen. Make it the first of a whole set. Just send your name and address with one box top from any Betty Crocker Cake or Frosting Mix package, to Betty Crocker, Dept. 830, Minneapolis 60, Minn. Limit one to a family. Offer expires Jan. 18, 1962.

GONE UP!
the cost-of-living has soared 117% in the past 30 years!

HELD DOWN!
the price of PG&E gas and electricity is actually 8% less than it was 30 years ago!
(Based on typical home use of gas and electricity)

Of course, your PG&E bill is bigger these days because you use more gas and electricity every year . . . for better lighting, TV, automatic washer, dryer, dishwasher and all the other work-saving appliances you add to make living easier and more enjoyable.

Drinking? Don't Drive CHP Says

Anyone question the admonition, "If you drink, don't drive"?

All doubts should be dispelled by these December, 1960, statistics about accidents on the California highways, issued by the State Highway Patrol.

Fatal accidents involving drivers who had been drinking were just under one-third of the total reported.

Over one-fifth of the accident tally involved drivers who had been drinking.

THE HIGHWAY Patrol says special driving care should be exercised between the hours of 10 p.m. and 3 a.m. — noting in particular that almost half the accidents that occurred between 2 a.m. and 3 a.m. involved drivers who had been drinking.

During 1960, members of the highway patrol arrested an average of 37 drivers per day who had been drinking.

ONE BRIGHT NOTE, this is a decrease in the state of 3.8 per cent compared to 1959.

One hundred eighteen or 10.1 per cent of the had-been drinking fatalities during the year were recorded in December.

STATEWIDE the report revealed that on Christmas, 1960, 56 were killed during the 78-hour period between 6 p.m. December 23 and midnight December 26.
